

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
General bibliography	xi
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction	1
1. Amos and his time	1
2. Amos as an individual	6
3. Literary genres and stylistic characteristics	12
4. Composition	15
5. The origins of the book	16
6. Amos's thought	18
7. The Septuagint and the ancient versions	23
The Superscription (1.1)	24
A Detached Oracle (1.2)	28
The Oracles against the Nations (1.3–2.16)	31
1. Against Damascus (1.3–5)	32
2. Against the Philistines (1.6–8)	35
3. Against Tyre (1.9–10)	37
4. Against Edom (1.11–12)	40
5. Against Ammon (1.13–15)	42
6. Against Moab (2.1–3)	44
7. Against Judah (2.4–5)	45
8. Against Israel (2.6–16)	46
The 'Words of Amos of Tekoa' I (chs. 3–6)	53
1. The election of Israel (3.1–2)	53
2. Causes and effects (3.3–8)	56
3. Against the kingdom of Israel (3.9–12)	60
4. Against the sanctuary of Bethel and the palaces (3.13–15)	64
5. Against the rich women of Samaria (4.1–3)	67
6. The cult as sacrilege (4.4–5)	70

CONTENTS

7. The useless quest (4.6–13)	73
8. Funeral lament over Israel (5.1–3)	80
9. The quest for God (5.4–6, 14–15)	83
10. The first invective (5.7 + 10–13, 16–17 and 8–9)	88
11. The second invective: the ‘Day of YHWH’ (5.18–20)	93
12. Cult and injustice (5.21–27)	96
13. The third invective: the ‘consumer society’ (6.1–8a)	101
14. The judgment on the capital (6.8–11)	106
15. Two appendices (6.12–14)	109
The Visions of Amos (7.1–8.3; 9.1–6)	112
1. First vision: the locusts (7.1–3)	112
2. Second vision: the fire (7.4–6)	113
3. Third vision: the plumb-bob (7.7–9)	114
4. Fourth vision: ripe fruit (8.1–3)	117
5. Fifth vision: YHWH at the altar (9.1–6)	119
Interlude: Report on the Incident at Bethel (7.10–17)	125
The ‘Words of Amos of Tekoa’ II (8.4–14; 9.7–10)	134
1. Against the dishonest traders (8.4–8)	134
2. The solar eclipse (8.9–10)	137
3. Hunger and thirst for the word of God (8.11–12)	138
4. The end of the idolaters (8.13–14)	140
5. The election of Israel and the others (9.7–10)	142
Epilogue: The Restoration of the House of David (9.11–15)	146