

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
I. Introduction and Method of Study	1
Description of the Book of Jubilees	2
Research on Jubilees	7
Studies before Qumran	7
Scholarship after Qumran	10
Another Area of Research for Jubilees:
Biblical Interpretation	15
II. Jacob and Abraham: Grandfather Transmits The Promise (Jubilees 19:1-23:8)	18
Death and Burial of Sarah (19:1-9)	19
Isaac's Marriage with Rebekah (19:10), Abraham's Third Marriage (19:11-12)	21
Birth of Esau and Jacob (19:13-14)	22
Abraham Loves Jacob and Blesses him (19:15-31)	25
Abraham's Last Words to the Children and Grandchildren (20:1-11)	28
The Dwelling-places of the Ishmaelites and of the Sons of Keturah (20:12-13)	30
Abraham's Last Words to Isaac (21:1-25)	30
Isaac, Ishmael and Jacob Join in Festival with Abraham, Abraham's Prayer (22:1-9)	39
Abraham's Last Words to Jacob (22:10-24)	43
Death and Burial of Abraham (23:1-8)	45
Conclusion	48
III. Jacob, Rebekah, and Isaac: Maternal Partiality Prevails (Jubilees 23:9-25:23)	51
Decreasing Years and Increasing Corruption of the Human Race (23:9-13)	52
Deuteronomistic Patterning in an Apocalypse (23:14-31)	53

Isaac at the Well of Vision; Esau Sells his Birthright (24:1-7)	63
Isaac's Sojourn in Gerar; his Dealings with Abimelech (24:8-27)	65
Isaac Curses the Philistines (24:28-33)	70
Rebekah Admonishes Jacob not to Marry a Canaanite Woman (25:1-10)	73
Rebekah Blesses Jacob (25:11-23)	77
Conclusion	83
IV. Jacob: The Model Patriarch
(Jubilees 26:1-29:20)	85
Jacob Obtains the Blessing of the Firstborn (26:1-25)	85
Rebekah Induces Isaac to Send Jacob to Mesopotamia (27:1-18)	92
Jacob's Dream at Bethel (27:19-27)	97
Jacob's Marriage to Leah and Rachel (28:1-10)	100
Jacob's Children (28:11-24)	106
Jacob Attempts to Leave Haran (28:25-30)	107
Jacob's Flight (29:1-6)	109
Jacob's Covenant with Laban (29:7-12)	112
Jacob's Reconciliation with Esau (29:13)	114
Jacob's Filial Devotion (29:14-20)	115
Conclusion	117
V. Levi and Simeon: Violence Interpreted as Righteousness
(Jubilees 30)	120
The Rape of Dinah (30:13)	121
Slaughter of the Schechemites (30:4, 24)	129
Defiling a Daughter of Israel (30:5-17, 21-23)	131
Priesthood as Levi's Reward for Zeal (30:18-20)	147
Conclusion	153
VI. From Ancestral Family to Priestly People
(Jubilees 31-45)	155
Overview of Jubilees 31-45	155
From Shechem to Hebron (31:1-33:23)	158
From Bethel to Hebron and back (31:1-33)	159
Dream, Visions and Festival at Bethel (32:1-30)	162
Jacob and Rebekah Return to Hebron (32:31-33:23)	169

Joseph's Beginnings (34:1-22)	171
Rebekah and Isaac: Testaments and Deaths (35:1-36:18)	173
Rebekah's Testament of Peace and her Death (35:1-27)	173
Isaac's Farewell and Death (36:1-18)	176
Jacob and Esau at Odds (36:19-38:14)	177
Jacob and Esau Separate (36:19-20)	178
Leah's Death and Burial (36:21-24)	179
War between the Sons of Esau and Sons of Jacob (37:1-38:14)	180
Joseph as Peace-Maker (39:1-45:12)	182
Joseph's Fluctuating Fortunes in Egypt (39:1-40:13)	183
Judah and Tamar (40:1-28)	185
Joseph as Agent of Reconciliation and Feeding (42:1-45:12)	187
The Death of Jacob and Levi's Commission (45:13-16)	191
Conclusion	193
VII. Interpretive Art in Jubilees	196
Homiletic and Exegetical Techniques	196
Compositions of this Author	197
Retelling the Story	209
Hermeneutical Principles	223
Conclusion	224
VIII. The Character of Jubilees	226
Theological Tendencies	226
A Single Covenant: Moses, Noah, and Jacob	226
Jacob: Center of the Covenant	228
Retributive Justice: Actions Breed Consequences	231
Sacred Persons: Levitical and Priestly Purity	233
Sacred Time: Calendar and Festivals	234
Summary	235
Historical and Socio-Religious Setting	236
Combating Assimilationists	236
"Levitical" Adherents to the Covenant: Speaking for the Dislocated	238
Attitude Toward the Biblical Text	249

Appendixes	251
I. Synoptic View of Jubilees 19-45 and Genesis 23-50	251
II. Motifs in the Farewell Speeches in Jubilees	255
Bibliography	256
Indexes	268