

CONTENTS

	INTRODUCTION	1
	I THE MERCHANT CLASS	7
	The commitment to the past. The merchants after the Restoration.
	II THE SAMURAI CLASS	44
	The economic impasse of the samurai. The drafting of samurai for modern enterprise.
	III RURAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP	69
	Rural entrepreneurs in Tokugawa Japan. The rural manufacturers after the Restoration.
IV	THE INITIATIVE FROM THE CENTER	111
	The bummei kaika . The transfer of technology. The transportation system. Other government enterprises. Indirect subsidies to private industry. Japanese industry in the mid-Meiji years.
	V THE SPIRIT OF ENTERPRISE IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR	162
	The entrepreneur, a new status. The low profit rates. The question of economic rationality.

VI THE ZAIBATSU BUILDERS 211

The House of Mitsui and Minomura Rizaemon. Masuda Takashi. Nakamigawa Hikojirō. Iwasaki Yatarō, the builder of Mitsubishi. Hirose Saihei, the modernizer of Sumitomo. Yasuda Zenjirō, the banker. Ōkura Kihachirō, the trader and industrialist. Furukawa Ichibei, the builder of a mining empire. Asano Sōichirō, the courageous innovator. Conclusions on the zaibatsu builders.

VII FIFTY LEADING ENTREPRENEURS 245

Formative influences. The entrepreneurial performance: Biographical notes.

CONCLUSION 287

NOTES 295

BIBLIOGRAPHY 323

GLOSSARY 343

INDEX 349