

Contents

INTRODUCTION: The Question of World Order 1

Varieties of World Order 2 • Legitimacy and Power 9

CHAPTER 1: Europe: The Pluralistic International Order 11

The Uniqueness of the European Order 11 • The Thirty Years' War: What Is Legitimacy? 20 • The Peace of Westphalia 23 • The Operation of the Westphalian System 31 • The French Revolution and Its Aftermath 41

CHAPTER 2: The European Balance-of-Power System and Its End 49

The Russian Enigma 49 • The Congress of Vienna 59 • The Premises of International Order 68 • Metternich and Bismarck 73 • The Dilemmas of the Balance of Power 76 • Legitimacy and Power Between the World Wars 82 • The Postwar European Order 86 • The Future of Europe 91

CHAPTER 3: Islamism and the Middle East: A World in Disorder 96

The Islamic World Order 97 • The Ottoman Empire: The Sick Man of Europe 109 • The Westphalian System and the Islamic World 111 • Islamism: The Revolutionary Tide—Two Philosophical Interpretations 118 • The Arab Spring and the Syrian Cataclysm 122 • The Palestinian Issue and International Order 129 • Saudi Arabia 134 • The Decline of the State? 142

CHAPTER 4: The United States and Iran: Approaches to Order 146

The Tradition of Iranian Statecraft 149 • The Khomeini Revolution 152 • Nuclear Proliferation and Iran 159 • Vision and Reality 169

CHAPTER 5: The Multiplicity of Asia 172

Asia and Europe: Different Concepts of Balance of Power 172 •
Japan 180 • India 192 • What Is an Asian Regional Order? 208

CHAPTER 6: Toward an Asian Order: Confrontation or Partnership? 212

Asia's International Order and China 213 • China and World Order 221 •
A Longer Perspective 228

CHAPTER 7: "Acting for All Mankind": The United States and Its Concept of Order 234

America on the World Stage 239 • Theodore Roosevelt: America as a World
Power 247 • Woodrow Wilson: America as the World's Conscience 256 •
Franklin Roosevelt and the New World Order 269

CHAPTER 8: The United States: Ambivalent Superpower 276

The Beginning of the Cold War 280 • Strategies of a Cold War Order 283 •
The Korean War 288 • Vietnam and the Breakdown of the National Consensus 295 • Richard Nixon and International Order 302 •
The Beginning of Renewal 308 • Ronald Reagan and the End of the Cold War 310 • The Afghanistan and Iraq Wars 317 • The Purpose and the Possible 327

CHAPTER 9: Technology, Equilibrium, and Human Consciousness 330

World Order in the Nuclear Age 331 • The Challenge of Nuclear Proliferation 336 • Cyber Technology and World Order 341 • The Human Factor 348 • Foreign Policy in the Digital Era 354

CONCLUSION: World Order in Our Time? 361

The Evolution of International Order 365 • Where Do We Go from Here? 371

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 375

NOTES 379

INDEX 405