

CONTENTS

Preface	5
Bibliography	11
Abbreviations	17
I. Introduction	19
A. The Text	21
B. Ancient Sources on Paulinus	22
C. A Sketch of Paulinus's Life	24
II. Paulinus's Understanding of Conversion	33
A. Conuertere and conuersio in Paulinus's Writings	34
B. Paulinus's View of His Own Conversion	35
1. Carm. 10 to Ausonius	36
2. Ep. 5 to Severus	39
3. Ep. 25* to Crispinianus	42
4. Carm. 21 (Natalicium XIII)	47
C. Summary	49
III. Paulinus of Nola and Priscillianism	52
IV. Paulinus of Nola and Monasticism	58
A. The Lexicographical Evidence	60
1. Monasterium	60
a. The precedents	60
b. Paulinus's use of monasterium	63
2. Monachus	66
a. The precedents	66
b. Paulinus's use of monachus	67
B. Monastic Life at Nola	70
1. The Monastery Buildings	70
2. Monastic Dress and Appearance	73
3. Fasting at Nola	76

4. Manual Labor	78
5. The Practice of Common Prayer	78
C. Conclusion	81
V. The Monastic World around Paulinus	82
A. Augustine and Italian Monasticism	83
1. Augustine and Paulinus	83
2. The Monasteries in Milan and Rome	83
B. Ambrose and Monasticism	86
1. Paulinus and Ambrose	86
2. Ambrose's Allusions to Monasticism	87
3. Ambrose and Eusebius of Vercelli	89
C. Monasticism in the Vita Martini	94
1. Paulinus and Martin	94
2. The Vita Martini	95
D. Sulpicius Severus at Primuliacum	97
E. Jerome's Influence on Paulinus	98
1. Paulinus and Jerome	98
2. The Aduersus Iouinianum	100
3. Jerome's ep. 58 to Paulinus	101
F. Summary: Paulinus in the Monastic Landscape	106
1. Monastic Geography and Chronology	107
2. Monasticism and the City	107
3. The Clerical State and Monasticism	108
4. Fasting	108
5. Manual Labor and Reading	109
6. Dress, Appearance and Cleanliness	109
7. Common Prayer	109
8. Western Monasticism and the Aristocracy	110
9. Conclusions	110
VI. Paulinus and Pelagianism	111
VII. Opposition to the Monastic Movement	116
A. The Pagan Opposition: Rutilius Claudius Namatianus	116
B. Monks and the Civil Law	117
C. Monks and the Secular Clergy	119

D. The Theological Opposition to Monasticism	123
E. Conclusions	127
VIII. Paulinus of Nola's Religious Outlook	128
A. Paulinus and the Bible	128
B. Paulinus's Religious Outlook	134
1. Ascetical Dualism	134
2. Withdrawal from the World	135
3. Rejection of Property	136
4. Continence	137
5. The Christian Life	138
6. Eschatological Motivation	139
7. Conclusion	140
C. Paulinus and Theology	141
D. Paulinus's Devotional Life	145
1. Saint Felix of Nola	145
2. The Tombs of the Martyrs	148
3. The Translation of Martyrs and the Cult of Relics	149
4. Conclusion	151
IX. Concluding Summary	152
Appendix I. The Chronology of Paulinus's Works	154
A. The Chronological Value of the Natalicia	154
B. The Order of Carm. 27 and 28	155
C. The Absolute Chronology of the Natalicia	159
D. Nicetas's Visits to Nola	162
E. Melania's Visit to Nola	164
F. Augustine's Ordination and the African Letters	166
1. The History of the Question	166
2. An Evaluation of the Arguments	171
3. A Critique of Perler's Thesis	173
4. Reconsideration and Conclusions	175
G. Paulinus's Ordination and the Early Letters to Severus	178
H. Victor's Journeys and the Later Letters to Severus	182
J. Other Questions of Chronology	187

K. A Chronological Table of Paulinus's Works	188
Appendix II. An Annotated Bibliography on Paulinus of Nola, 1879—1976	192
A. Separate Bibliographical Surveys	192
B. The Text of Paulinus's Works	192
1. Critical Editions	192
2. Textual Criticism	193
3. Manuscripts	193
4. Translations	194
5. Lexicography	194
6. Chronology	195
7. Questions of Authenticity	196
8. Style and Metrics	196
C. Paulinus of Nola	197
1. Prosopography	197
2. Historical Material on Paulinus	197
3. Encomia and Printed Speeches	199
4. Paulinus and His Contemporaries	199
5. Literary Analyses of Paulinus's Works	200
6. Paulinus and the Literary Tradition	202
D. Archaeology	203
E. Liturgy	204
Indexes	205
A. Ancient Persons and Places	205
B. Biblical References	213
C. Greek and Latin Terms	213
D. Modern Authors	215