
Contents

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	viii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	x
1 Inclusion and exclusion in the city: concepts and contexts	1
TONY BOOTH
2 'A great learning city'	15
PATRICIA POTTS
3 Perspectives on inclusion/exclusion in Birmingham	46
PATRICIA POTTS
4 Selection by attainment in Birmingham	68
SHARON RUSTEMIER WITH GWENN EDWARDS
5 Embracing the faith, including the community?	89
TONY BOOTH
6 Single-sex education and inclusive school communities	113
PATRICIA POTTS AND GWENN EDWARDS
7 Student choice and participation in further education	132
SHARON RUSTEMIER
8 A 'turbulent' city: mobility and social inclusion	152
PATRICIA POTTS

9	Community, diversity and inclusion PATRICIA POTTS	173
	Index	182

Illustrations

1	Birmingham's political wards	15
2	Birmingham city centre in 1905	18
3	Birmingham city centre in 1983	19
4	Birmingham's 'Spaghetti Junction' on the M1: a national symbol of post-war modernization	20
5	From school to gallery: an icon of Birmingham's regeneration, the IKON Gallery	21
6	Anthony Gormley's 'The Iron Man' in the city of a thousand metal trades	22
7	Birmingham's Education Department before 1993	27
8	The Education Department after 1993	28
9	The city's Education Department in 2001	29
10	Birmingham's Standards for Inclusive Education	35