

Contents

Introduction	page 1
Takashi Hikino, Vera Zamagni, and Louis Galambos
PART I CROSSCUTTING ISSUES
1. The Evolution of Networks in the Chemical Industry	21
Fabrizio Cesaroni, Alfonso Gambardella, and Myriam Mariani
2. Competitive Strategies of the World's Largest Chemical Companies, 1970-2000	53
Harm G. Schröter
3. Financial Systems and Corporate Strategy in the Chemical Industry	82
Marco Da Rtn
4. Government Environmental Policy and the Chemical Industry	114
Wyn Grant

PART II WORLD PLAYERSLeaders

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 5. | The German Chemical Industry after World War II
Ulrich Wengenroth | 141 |
| 6. | The American Chemical Industry since the Petrochemical Revolution
John Kenly Smith, Jr. | 168 |

Competitors

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 7. | The Export-Dependence of the Swiss Chemical Industry and the Internationalization of Swiss Chemical Firms (1950–2000)
Margrit Müller | 193 |
| 8. | Development Patterns in the Petrochemical Industry in the Nordic Countries, 1960–2000
Gunnar Nerheim | 224 |
| 9. | Repositioning of European Chemical Groups and Changes in Innovation Management: The Case of the French Chemical Industry
Florence Charue-Duboc | 251 |
| 10. | The United Kingdom
Wyn Grant | 285 |
| 11. | The Development and Struggle of Japanese Chemical Enterprises since the Petrochemical Revolution
Takashi Hikino | 308 |

European Followers

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 12. | The Rise and Fall of the Italian Chemical Industry, 1950s–1990s
Vera Zamagni | 347 |
| 13. | The Global Accommodation of a Latecomer: The Spanish Chemical Industry since the Petrochemical Revolution
Núria Puig | 368 |
| 14. | Some Final Observations
Vera Zamagni and Louis Galambos | 402 |

Appendix: The Chemical Industry after World War II Renato Giannetti and Valentina Romei	407
Selected Bibliography	453
Index	465