

Contents

Introduction by Luca D'Isanto	1
Return	20
Return and philosophy	28
Christian inheritance and nihilism	33
Incarnation and secularization	38
Beyond the violence of metaphysics	43
Secularization: a purified faith?	46
Revelation continues	48
Christianity and modernity	50
Demythification against paradox: the meaning of kenosis	54
Demythification of morality	56
Demythification of dogmas	58
Secularization: the limit of charity	62
Enlightenment rediscovered	65
The substance of faith	68
The moral question	71
To return where?	75
A reduced faith	77
Secularization versus tragic thought	80
Reason and the leap	85
What a pity!	87
Postscriptum	93