

Contents

PREFACE	ix
I. THE RATIONALE—WHY READ VICTORIAN PERIODICALS?	3
John S. North
Periodicals and the Eminent	6
Major Movements	10
Lesser Names and Movements	18
II. THE BIBLIOGRAPHIC CONTROL OF VICTORIAN PERIODICALS	21
Scott Bennett
The Bibliographic Control of Periodical Titles: Inventories	22
Library Catalogues	22
Trade Publications	24
Retrospective Lists: General	26
Retrospective Lists: Regional	29
Retrospective Lists: Specific Subject Fields	31
The Bibliographic Control of Periodical Contents: Indexing	35
An Academy of Projectors	46
III. FINDING LISTS FOR VICTORIAN PERIODICALS	52
J. Don Vann and Rosemary T. VanArsdel
Major References	52
Other Finding Lists for Great Britain	55
London	55
Regional Lists (British)	55
University Libraries	57
Specialized	58
Regional Lists in Canada and the United States	60
Specialized Checklists	61
Microfilm and Microform	61
Computer Networks	62

IV. BIOGRAPHICAL RESOURCES	64
William H. Scheuerle
The Dictionary of National Biography	65
The DNB Project	67
The Modern English Biography	68
Allibone's Critical Dictionary	71
Other General Biographical Dictionaries	71
Encyclopedias	73
Obituaries	74
Diaries and Autobiographies	75
Specialized Biographical Sources	75
Efforts toward a Comprehensive Biographical Source	79
V. GENERAL HISTORIES OF THE PRESS	81
Joanne Shattock
Bibliographies	82
Literary Periodicals	83
The Newspaper Press	87
General	87
The Radical Press	90
The Popular Press	92
Specialized Studies	93
Art Periodicals	93
Women's Periodicals	94
Children's Periodicals	95
Comics	95
Theatrical Journalism	96
Temperance Periodicals	96
The Nineties	96
The Religious Press	97
Other Periodicals	97
VI. HISTORIES AND STUDIES OF INDIVIDUAL PERIODICALS	98
Lionel Madden and Diana Dixon
Primary Source Materials	98
Bibliographies	102
Magazines	105
Newspapers	113
Lesser Periodicals	117

VII. THE IDENTIFICATION OF AUTHORS: THE GREAT VICTORIAN ENIGMA	123
Mary Ruth Hiller
The Tradition of Anonymity	123
The Necessity of Identification	127
The Indexes	128
The Process of Identification: Where to Look for Clues	133
Pitfalls	144
Future Directions	147
VIII. CIRCULATION AND THE STAMP TAX	149
Joel H. Wiener
Secondary Sources: General Studies	151
Secondary Sources: Studies of Individual Periodicals	153
Advertisers' Directories	154
The Stamp Tax and the Parliamentary Returns	156
Limitations of the Stamp Returns	160
Appendix A: A Descriptive Guide to the Contents of the Stamp Returns, 1824-70	166
Appendix B: Some Sample Circulations Derived from the Stamp Returns, 1829-54	170
INDEX	175