

CONTENTS

PREFACE page vii

Chapter One

THE ADVENT OF THE MODERN THEATRE:
INTRODUCTION I

Chapter Two

	THE THEATRICAL WORLD	17
1	London's West End and Beyond	18
2	Commercialism, the Music-Hall Empire and Trade-Unionism	30
3	"My Lady Kinema"	40
4	The "Modern" Movement: (a) the Repertories .	48
5	The "Modern" Movement: (b) Societies, Pageants and Festivals	78
6	Shifting Scenes	93

Chapter Three

	THE DRAMA: INFLUENCES, PATTERNS AND FORMS	111
1	Dramatic Internationalism	111
2	Dramatic Architecture and the Vogue for One-Act Plays	122
3	The Dramatic Kinds	133
4	Copyright, Criticism and Censorship . . .	139

*Chapter Four*POPULAR ENTERTAINMENT: MUSICALS, REVUES
AND MELODRAMAS page 152

1	The Musical Comedy and its Companions.	153
2	The Revue	167
3	The Melodrama	179

*Chapter Five*THE MINORITY DRAMA 215

1	Miscellaneous New Forms and Objectives: Propagandist Plays; Religious Dramas; Plays for Children and for Villagers	222
2	The Regional Drama	248
3	Social Drama: The "Manchester School" and Others	272
4	The Poetic and Literary Drama	283

*Chapter Six*THE "GENERAL" DRAMA 324

1	The "Established" Dramatists: H. A. Jones and A. W. Pinero	327
2	J. M. Barrie and G. B. Shaw	344
3	New Members of the Establishment: Davies, Sutro and Maugham	363
4	The Play of Ideas: Harley Granville-Barker , St John Hankin and John Galsworthy	390
5	The End and the Beginning: Ervine , Drinkwater , Lonsdale , Coward , Milne	407

	HAND-LIST OF PLAYS, 1900-1930		451
--	-------------------------------	--	-----

	INDEX		1055
--	-------	--	------