

Part 1

- 1 The Writer's Stance
- 2 Forming a Thesis
- 3 How to Make a Helpful Outline
- 4 Developing Themes: Seven Strategies

- 5 Organizing Clear Paragraphs and Themes
- 6 Improving Theme Content
- 7 Succeeding with Words
- 8 Shaping Better Sentences (I): Effective Structure
- 9 Shaping Better Sentences (II): Revising and Editing

- 10 Writing a Persuasive Argument
- 11 The Research Paper
- 12 The Literary Paper
- 13 Writing for the Business World

GA Grammatical Analysis

- G Forms of Grammar
 - S Sentence Structure
 - P Punctuation
 - M Mechanics
- DY Using the Dictionary
- PP Polishing and Proofreading
- GL Glossary

Contents

I Solving Early Problems

- 1 The Writer's Stance 3
 - Writer's Stance—A Definition 4
 - Applying the Principles of Stance 5
 - You and the Writer's Stance 6
 - The Role* 6
 - The Thesis* 7
 - The Reader* 8
 - Stance: Limitations and Possibilities* 9
 - Example of a Completed Stance* 10
 - Creating "Distance" 10
 - Stance and the "Strategies" of Rhetoric 12
 - Practice* 13

- 2 Forming a Thesis 18
 - The Assignment and the Thesis 20
 - A Thesis Notebook* 21
 - The Thesis As Answer to a Question* 23
 - Improving Your Thesis 24
 - Practices* 18, 26

- 3 How to Make a Helpful Outline 28
 - Types of Outlines 28
 - The Form of Outlines 30
 - Four Typical Questions About Outlines 31
 - How a Thesis Suggests an Outline 34
 - How to Check an Outline 34
 - Some Final Comments on Outlining 35
 - Practice* 36

4 Developing Themes: Seven Strategies 38

- Strategy 1 Personal Experience 40
- Strategy 2 Definition 45
 - Techniques of Defining* 47
 - Avoid Errors in Defining* 49
 - Some Final Suggestions for Defining* 50
- Strategy 3 Cause and Effect 53
 - Recognizing the Signs of Causation* 54
 - Suggestions for Writing Causation Themes* 56
- Strategy 4 Process 61
 - What Is Process?* 61
 - Suggestions for Writing Process Themes* 63
- Strategy 5 Analogy 67
 - Literal and Figurative Analogies* 67
 - Suggestions for Writing Analogies* 68
- Strategy 6 Classification 73
 - The "Ruling Principle" in Classification* 74
 - Suggestions for Writing a Classification Paper* 77
- Strategy 7 Comparison-Contrast 80
 - Planning the Comparison-Contrast Theme* 80
 - Organizing Comparison-Contrast Themes* 82
- Practices* 42, 45, 51, 55, 59, 62, 64, 70, 76, 78, 81, 86

II Writing Better Themes

- 5 Organizing Clear Paragraphs and Themes 91
 - The Promise Pattern 91
 - Writing Successful Paragraphs 96
 - Non-promise Paragraphs 101
 - Suspense Paragraphs* 101
 - Transitional Paragraphs* 102
 - How to Arrange Your Ideas 103
 - Start with a Simple or Familiar Idea* 104
 - Use a Graded Order of Ideas* 105
 - Introductions and Conclusions 107
 - Transitions 110
 - Organizing by "Creative Repetition" 111
 - Practices* 94, 100, 103, 107, 113

6	Improving Theme Content	116
	Be Factual	117
	General and Particular Facts	119
	Loose Generalizations	123
	How to Qualify a Generalization	124
	Make Your Writing Informative and Lively	126
	Use Description and Narrative	131
	Description	131
	Narrative	135
	Dialogue in Description and Narrative	136
	Practices	116, 121, 125, 129, 137
7	Succeeding with Words	140
	Accurate Words	140
	Suitable Words	142
	Effective Words	143
	Be Specific	143
	Watch Your Connotations	146
	Use Figures of Speech Carefully	149
	Use Standard English	153
	Be Idiomatic	155
	Ineffective Words	157
	Types of Ineffective Wording	157
	Avoid Jargon and Shoptalk	159
	Practices	142, 145, 148, 151, 153, 156, 159, 160
8	Shaping Better Sentences (I):
	Effective Structure	163
	The Typical Sentence	163
	Sentence Bases	164
	Free Units in the Sentence	165
	Sentence Signals	167
	The Sentence Base Rule	168
	Parallelism	170
	Using Parallelism	171
	Avoid Faulty Parallelism	173
	Subordination	175
	Variations on the Typical Sentence	177
	Try Different Beginnings	178
	Employ Inversion	178
	Try a Periodic Sentence	179
	Use Qualifying and Balancing Devices	179
	Let Meaning Determine Your Structure	180
	Practices	169, 172, 174, 176, 181

- 9 Shaping Better Sentences (II):
Revising and Editing 184
Suggestions for Revising and Editing 184
A Final Note on Editing 191
Practice 191

III Handling Special Assignments

- 10 Writing a Persuasive Argument 195
Use a Human Approach 198
Ethical Proof 198
The "You-Attitude" 200
Give Solid Evidence 202
Factual Evidence 202
Authoritative Evidence 203
Use Good Logic 206
Induction and Deduction: A Definition 207
Using Induction and Deduction 208
Avoid Fallacies 211
Recognizing and Correcting Fallacies 211
Use a Clear Argumentative Organization 218
Theses of Fact and of Action 218
Organization of Fact Arguments 219
Organization of Action Arguments 221
Organization of Refutation Arguments 223
Practices 196, 201, 202, 205, 210, 216, 225
- 11 The Research Paper 229
Step 1: Choose Your Subject 229
Reference Books 230
The Card Catalog 232
Periodical Indexes 233
Step 2: Make Your Working Bibliography 236
Step 3: Read, Take Notes, Evaluate the Evidence, Create a
Stance, and Look for a Thesis 237
The Form of Notes 237
Taking Notes 238
Accurate Paraphrasing 238
Proper Techniques for Quoting 240
Plagiarism 241
Thesis and Stance 242

Step 4: Make an Outline	243
Step 5: Write the Paper	243
Footnote and Bibliography Forms	244
Footnote Forms	244
Footnotes As They Might Appear in a Paper	247
The Bibliography	248
Checklist for the First Draft	251
Sample Research Paper	252
A List of Reference Works	268
General Reference Works	268
Special Reference Works	269
Practices	233, 235, 241, 250, 266

12 The Literary Paper 274

What Is a Literary Paper?	274
Reading and Understanding the Literary Work	278
Brief Glossary of Literary Terms	278
The Narrative Work	280
The Non-narrative Work	282
Questions to Ask About a Work	284
Writing the Literary Paper	286
The Assignment	287
Knowing the Work	288
The Writer's Stance	289
What to Avoid in Writing the Literary Paper	289
Practices	274, 290

13 Writing for the Business World 301

Business Writing: Five Emphases	301
Using Illustrations	304
The Letter	310
Form of the Letter	310
Psychology of the Letter	310
Two Sample Letters	312
The Job Application Letter	316
The Data Sheet	316
The Application Letter	318
The Memo	321
Form of the Memo	322
Two Sample Memos	322
Negative Messages	325
Reports	328
Practices	308, 315, 320, 323, 326

Handbook

- GA Grammatical Analysis 331
GA 1 Learn the Parts of Speech 331
GA 2 Learn to Identify Clauses 334
GA 3 Learn to Identify Phrases 338
Practices 334, 336, 337, 339
- G Forms of Grammar 341
G 1 Possessive with Gerund 341
G 2 Vague or Ambiguous Pronoun Reference 342
G 3 Wrong Form of Pronoun 342
G 4 Appropriate Verb Tense 343
G 5 Faulty Principal Part of the Verb 345
G 6 Proper Use of the Subjunctive 345
G 7 Piling Up Verbs 346
G 8 Confusion of Adjectives and Adverbs 346
G 9 Degrees of Comparison for Adjectives and Adverbs 347
G 10 Misuse of Noun As Adjective 348
G 11 Faulty Verb Agreement 349
G 12 Faulty Pronoun Agreement 351
G 13 The Generic Pronoun 352
Practices 341, 343, 344, 345, 346, 348, 350, 352
- S Sentence Structure 353
S 1 Unnecessary Shifts 353
S 2 Omissions and Incomplete Constructions 354
S 3 Faulty Comparison 355
S 4 Split or "Separated" Constructions 356
S 5 Misplaced Modifiers 358
S 6 Squinting Modifiers 358
S 7 Dangling Modifiers 359
S 8 Faulty Parallelism 360
S 9 Proper Subordination 361
S 10 Faulty Subordination 362
S 11 Faulty Coordination 363
S 12 Faulty Complements 364

- S 13 Sentence Fragments 366
- S 14 Comma Splices 367
- S 15 Fused Sentences 367
- S 16 Run-on Sentences 368
- Practices* 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363,
364, 365, 366, 368

P Punctuation 369

- P 1 Use a Period When . . . 369
- P 2 Use a Question Mark When . . . 369
- P 3 Use an Exclamation Mark When . . . 370
- P 4 Use a Comma When . . . 370
- P 5 Use a Semicolon When . . . 371
- P 6 Use a Colon When . . . 372
- P 7 Use Parentheses When . . . 373
- P 8 Use a Dash When . . . 373
- P 9 Use an Apostrophe When . . . 374
- P 10 Use a Hyphen When . . . 374
- P 11 Use Quotation Marks When . . . 375
- P 12 Use Italics When . . . 376
- Rhetoric of Punctuation
- Practices* 376, 380

M Mechanics 381

- M 1 Abbreviations 381
- M 2 Capitalization 381
- M 3 Manuscript Form 382
- M 4 Numbers 383
- M 5 Syllabication 384

DY Using the Dictionary 385

Practice 387

PP Polishing and Proofreading 389

GL Glossary 391

Index 419