

CONTENTS

PART I

PAGE

CHAPTER I. VOCABULARY, pp. 1-59

General Principles	1-8
Familiar and far-fetched words	4
Concrete and abstract expression	5
Circumlocution	6
Short and long words	6
Saxon and Romance words	7
Requirements of different styles	7
Malaprops	8
Neologisms	18
Americanisms	23
Foreign words	26
Formation	37
Slang	47
Individual	53
Mutual	56
Unique	58
Aggravate	59

CHAPTER II. SYNTAX, pp. 60-170

Case	60
Number	65
Comparatives and superlatives	70
Relatives	75-107
Defining and non-defining relative clauses	75
That and who or which	80
And who, and which	85
Case of the relative	93
Miscellaneous uses of the relative	96
It . . . that	104

	PAGE
Participle and gerund	107
Participles	110
The gerund	116-133
Distinguishing the gerund	116
Omission of the gerund subject	125
Choice between gerund and infinitive	129
Shall and will	133-154
The pure system	134
The coloured-future system	136
The plain-future system	138
Second-person questions	139
Examples of principal sentences	141
Substantival clauses	143
Conditional clauses	149
Indefinite clauses	151
Examples of subordinate clauses	152
Perfect infinitive	154
Conditionals	156
Doubt that	158
Prepositions	161

CHAPTER III. AIRS AND GRACES, pp. 171-218

Certain types of humour	171
Elegant variation	175
Inversion	180-193
Exclamatory	181
Balance	182
In syntactic clauses	187
Negative, and false-emphasis	190
Miscellaneous	191
Archaism	193-200
Occasional	193
Sustained	198
Metaphor	200
Repetition	209

	PAGE
Miscellaneous	213-218
Trite phrases	213
Irony	215
Superlatives without the	216
Cheap originality	217

CHAPTER IV. PUNCTUATION, pp. 219-290

General difficulties	219
General principles	224
The spot plague	226
Over-stopping	231
Under-stopping	234
Grammar and punctuation	235-263
Substantival clauses	235
Subject, &c., and verb	239
Adjectival clauses	242
Adverbial clauses	244
Parenthesis	247
Misplaced commas	248
Enumeration	250
Comma between independent sentences	254
Semicolon with subordinate members	257
Exclamations and statements	258
Exclamations and questions	259
Internal question and exclamation marks	261
Unaccountable commas	262
The colon	263
Miscellaneous	264
Dashes	266-275
General abuse	266
Legitimate uses	267
Debatable questions	269
Common misuses	274
Hyphens	275
Quotation marks	280-290
Excessive use	280

	PAGE
Order with stops	282
Single and double	287
Misplaced	288
Half quotation	289
PART II. p. 291 to the end
EUPHONY, §§ 1-10
1. Jingles	291
2. Alliteration	292
3. Repeated prepositions	293
4. Sequence of relatives	293
5. Sequence of that , &c.	294
6. Metrical prose	295
7. Sentence accent	295
8. Causal as clauses	298
9. Wens and hypertrophied members	300
10. Careless repetition	303
QUOTATION, &c., §§ 11-19
11. Common misquotations	305
12. Uncommon misquotations of well-known passages	305
13. Misquotation of less familiar passages	306
14. Misapplied and misunderstood quotations and phrases	306
15. Allusion	307
16. Incorrect allusion	308
17. Dovetailed and adapted quotations and phrases	308
18. Trite quotation	310
19. Latin abbreviations, &c.	311
GRAMMAR, §§ 20-37
20. Unequal yokefellows and defective double harness	311
21. Common parts	314
22. The wrong turning	316
23. Ellipse in subordinate clauses	317
24. Some illegitimate infinitives	317

CONTENTS

ix

	PAGE
25. Split infinitives	319
26. Compound passives	319
27. Confusion with negatives	321
28. Omission of as	324
29. Other liberties taken with as	324
30. Brachylogy	326
31. Between two stools	327
32. The impersonal one	328
33. Between . . . or	328
34. A placed between the adjective and its noun	329
35. Do and be	330
36. Fresh starts	330
37. Vulgarisms and colloquialisms	331

MEANING, §§ 38-48

38. Tautology	331
39. Redundancies	332
40. As to whether	333
41. Superfluous but and though	334
42. If and when	334
43. Maltreated idioms	336
44. Truisms and contradictions in terms	339
45. Double emphasis	341
46. Split auxiliaries	342
47. Overloading	343
48. Demonstrative, noun, and participle or adjective	344

AMBIGUITY, §§ 49-52

49. False scent	345
50. Misplacement of words	346
51. Ambiguous position	347
52. Ambiguous enumeration	348

STYLE, § 53 to the end

53. Antics	348
54. Journalese	351
55. Somewhat , &c.	352

	PAGE
56. Clumsy patching	355
57. Omission of the conjunction that	356
58. Meaningless while	357
59. Commercialisms	357
60. Pet Phrases	359
61. Also as conjunction; and &c.	359