

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
--------------	---

Section I – Model & Make-Up

Eric Jan Sluijter The Nude, the Artist and the Model: The Case of Rembrandt	11
Erna Kok The Female Nude from Life: On Studio Practice and Beholder Fantasy	35
Victoria Sancho Lobis Printed Drawing Books and the Dissemination of Ideal Male Anatomy in Northern Europe	51
Paul Taylor Colouring Nakedness in Netherlandish Art and Theory	65

Section II – Matrix

Hubert Meeus Two Founts of Ivory: Nudity on Stage in the Seventeenth-Century-Low Countries	83
Johan Verberckmoes Is that Flesh for Sale? Seventeenth-Century Jest on Nudity in the Spanish Netherlands	87
Ralph Dekoninck Art Stripped Bare by the Theologians, Even: Image of Nudity / Nudity of Image in the Post-Tridentine Religious Literature	109
Veerle De Laet Een Naect Kindt, een Naect Vrouwen ende Andere Figueren : An Analysis of Nude Representations in the Brussels Domestic Setting	117

Section III – Measure

Fiona Healy Male Nudity in Netherlandish Painting of the Sixteenth- and Early Seventeenth-Centuries	131
Marie Geraerts Rubens's Feast of Venus Reconsidered. The Turning of Hearts to or from Love? Sensuality or Virtue?	159

Katharina Van Cauteren L'Honneur Animant la Beauté: Hendrick De Clerck's Diana Paintings for the Archdukes Albert and Isabella	181
Karolien De Clippel Altering, Hiding and Resisting. The Rubensian Nude in the Face of Censorship	201