

Contents

Preface	page ix
1 Architecture and the Capital City	1
2 Paris at the Dawn of the Renaissance	8
3 Creating a French Urban Architecture, 1610–1715	24
4 The Eighteenth Century: Architectural Harmonisation at the Close of the Ancien Régime	48
5 Revolution, Empire and Restoration: the Implications for Architecture, 1789–1852	67
6 Paris as the Hub of French Industrialisation: Building a European Capital under the Second Empire, 1852–70	83
7 After Haussmann: a New Paris in an Era of Alternative Architectures, 1870–1914	105
8 The Modernist Challenge, 1918–45	138
9 The Vital Encounter: Modernity versus Tradition in Post-war Paris	160
10 Continuity in Paris Architecture: the Dynamics of a Unique Phenomenon	200
Notes	207
Selected bibliography	214
Index	218