

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction Ivana Marková	1
Part I: The foundations of the dialogical approach	23
1. The social psychology of the prefix ‘inter-’: A prologue to the study of dialogue Rob Farr	25
2. Social communication, dialogue and conversation Thomas Luckmann	45
3. Dialogue and dialogism in a socio-cultural approach to mind James V. Wertsch	62
4. On axiomatic features of a dialogical approach to language and mind Ragnar Rommetveit	83
5. Perspectival structure and dynamics in dialogues Carl F. Graumann	105
Part II: Specific aspects of dialogical dynamics	127
6. A three-step process as a unit of analysis in dialogue Ivana Marková	129
7. The power of dialogue dynamics Per Linell	147
8. Topic progression and intention Klaus Foppa	178

vi Contents

9. On the local sensitivity of conversation Jörg R. Bergmann	201
Name index	227
Subject index	232