

89—VI. Interests and Actual Vocational Success, 91—VII. Practical Guidance through Interests, 93
V. PROBLEMS OF PERSONNEL.....	98
I. Scope and Definition of Personnel, 98—II. Personnel Problems, 100—III. Vocational Guidance and Vocational Selection, 106—IV. Qualifications Necessary for the Personnel Manager, 108
VI. OCCUPATIONAL DESCRIPTION; LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION; APPLICATION BLANK.....	111
I. Occupational Description, 111—II. Letters of Recommendation, 120—III. Application Blank, 123
VII. INTERVIEW AND RATING SCALES.....	127
I. Purpose of the Interview, 127—II. Preliminary Interview, 128—III. The Personal Interview, 131—IV. Rating, 137—V. Sources of Error in Rating, 143—VI. Improving the Accuracy of Rating Devices, 146
VIII. TESTS IN EMPLOYMENT PROCEDURES.....	153
PART I. GENERAL ABILITIES.....	153
I. Problems, 153—II. Use of Intelligence Tests, 155—III. Personality Measurements, 158—IV. Tests of Motor Ability, 160—V. Tests of Special Capacities, 166—VI. Physical Examination, 168
PART II. TRADE APTITUDES; VALIDATION.....	170
VII. Tests of Knowledge, 170—VIII. Trade Aptitude Tests, 175—IX. Test Batteries, 186—X. Validation and Interpretation of Test Scores, 191
IX. TESTS IN EMPLOYMENT PROCEDURES.....	170
PART II. TRADE APTITUDES; VALIDATION.....	170
VII. Tests of Knowledge, 170—VIII. Trade Aptitude Tests, 175—IX. Test Batteries, 186—X. Validation and Interpretation of Test Scores, 191
X. PERSONNEL AFTER EMPLOYMENT.....	199
I. Introduction, 199—II. Introduction to the Work, 199—III. Training, 203—IV. Flying Squadron, 210—V. Periodical Rating, 212—VI. Transfer, 216—VII. Promotion, 219—VIII. Resignations and Discharges, 222

XI. PERSONNEL RESEARCH	227
I. Importance of Research, 227—II. Personnel Records, 229— III. Statistical Methods, 231—IV. Some Topics of Personnel Research, 235
XII. COLLEGE PERSONNEL PROBLEMS.....	243
I. Purposes and Needs of College Personnel Work, 243—II. Purposes of College, 245—III. The Status and Organization of the Personnel Department in the University, 247—IV. Meth- ods of Admission, 249—V. Prediction of College Success, 252—VI. Freshman Orientation, 255—VII. Curricular Guid- ance, 256—VIII. Study of Academic Failures, 258—IX. Mental Hygiene, 262—X. Vocational Guidance, 266
XIII. INDUSTRIAL FATIGUE	270
I. Problem, 270—II. The Nature of Fatigue, 271—III. Mental and Nervous Fatigue, 274—IV. Methods of Measuring Fatigue, 275—V. Comparative Outputs, 276—VI. Rest Periods, 286— VII. Factory Conditions, 290—VIII. Monotony, 294
XIV. SCIENTIFIC MANAGEMENT	298
I. Aims, 298—II. Planning the Work, 300—III. Tools and Ma- chinery, 302—IV. Routing, 304—V. Motion Study, 306—VI. Efficiency of Work, 313—VII. Social Implications of Scien- tific Management, 316
XV. LABOR RELATIONS IN INDUSTRY.....	321
I. Fundamentals of Human Motivation, 321—II. What's on the Worker's Mind? 325—III. What Does the Worker Par- ticularly Dislike or Fear? 328—IV. Social Recognition, 331— V. Methods of Pay, 333—VI. Employees' Organizations, 335— VII. Labor Management, 338—VIII. Accident Prevention, 344
XVI. ADVERTISING: INTRODUCTION	351
I. Definition and Purpose of Advertising, 351—II. Local and National Advertising, 352—III. Advertising as Selling, 353— IV. Types of Advertising, 354—V. Major Steps in the Development of Advertising, 355—VI. Arguments Against Advertising, 360—VII. Arguments for Advertising, 363

XVII. APPEALS IN ADVERTISING.....	367
I. Strong Human Motives, 367—II. Analysis of Product, 368—III. Use of Appeals, 370—IV. Comparative Frequency of Appeals, 388—V. Relative Strength of Appeals, 390—VI. Positive and Negative Appeals, 391—VII. Argumentative and Suggestive Advertising, 396—VIII. Class Appeals, 400—IX. Testimonials, 402—X. Selection of Appeals, 406
XVIII. MAKING UP AND PUBLISHING THE ADVERTISEMENT	410
I. Illustration, 410—II. Color, 414—III. Headlines, 416—IV. Text, 419—V. Trade Marks and Slogans, 420—VI. Layout, 423—VII. Size, 428—VIII. Frequency of Insertion, 430—IX. Location within the Journal, 430—X. Choice of Medium, 432—XI. Research; Studying Returns, 433
XIX. DIFFERENT TYPES OF ADVERTISING.....	437
I. Problems, 437—II. Newspaper, 437—III. Street-car Cards, 439—IV. Outdoor Advertising, 441—V. Theater Advertising, 444—VI. Radio, 445—VII. Direct-mail Advertising, 449—VIII. Free Samples, 451—IX. Standard Packages and Wrappers, 453
XX. RETAIL SALESMANSHIP	455
I. Definition and Problems, 455—II. Selection of Salesmen, 456—III. Training Salesmen, 462—IV. Essentials of Successful Salesmanship, 465—V. Handling Customers, 470—VI. Closing the Sale, 475—VII. Building Up Good Will, 478
XXI. SELLING OUTSIDE THE STORE; STORE MANAGEMENT	481
PART I. SELLING PROBLEMS	481
I. Selling through Interview, 481—II. Wholesale Selling, 487—III. Door-to-door Selling, 489
PART II. STORE MANAGEMENT	491
IV. Attracting Customers to the Store, 491—V. Layout of the Store, 494—VI. Retail Selling Strategy, 496

PART III. THE CUSTOMER'S SIDE.....	500
VII. Developing Sales Resistance, 500—VIII. Protection of the Customer, 501—IX. Obligations of the Customer, 509
XXII. PSYCHOLOGY, PSYCHIATRY, AND MEDICINE..	512
I. Definitions of Fields, 512—II. Mind-body Relations, 512—III. Common Characteristics of Abnormality, 516—IV. The Principle of Functional Ailments, 519—V. Some Major Clinical Abnormalities, 521—VI. Borderline Abnormal Symptoms, 524—VII. Principles of Psychoanalysis, 530—VIII. Psychology in Health and Illness, 538
XXIII. PSYCHOLOGY IN LAW, I.....	547
I. Problem, 547—II. The Law as a Regulator of Behavior, 548—III. Who Is the Criminal? 549—IV. Juvenile Delinquency, 556—V. Crime Detection, 560
XXIV. PSYCHOLOGY IN LAW, II.....	569
VI. Witness and Testimony, 569—VII. Psychology in the Court-room, 576—VIII. Legal Responsibility, 580—IX. Theories and Practices of Punishment, 585
XXV. PSYCHOLOGY AND ATHLETICS.....	591
I. What Makes the Good Athlete? 591—II. Reaction Time, 596—III. Visual Phenomena in Athletics, 599—IV. Morale and Suggestion, 600—V. Strategy in Different Sports, 604
XXVI. PERSONAL PHYSICAL EFFICIENCY.....	610
I. Introduction, 610—II. Fatigue, 610—III. Exercise, 611—IV. Relaxation, 612—V. Sleep, 614—VI. Diet, 616—VII. Caffeine, 618—VIII. Nicotine, 620—IX. Alcohol, 622—X. Temperature and Ventilation, 625—XI. Regulation of Habits, 626
XXVII. EFFICIENCY OF STUDY.....	629
I. Introduction, 629—II. Incentives to Study, 630—III. Preparation for Study, 631—IV. General Policies in Study, 633—V. Efficiency of Learning, 636—VI. A Schedule for Work, 639—VII. Taking Notes, 641—VIII. Examinations, 642
INDEX	645