

CONTENTS

Key to phonetic symbols for English	inside front cover
Index to notes on pronunciation and phonetics	v
Acknowledgements	vi
A quick guide to the dictionary	viii
Foreword to the second edition	x
1 Introduction	xi
1.1 Variants	xi
1.2 Inflected and derived forms	xi
1.3 Proper names	xi
1.4 Compounds and phrases	xi
1.5 Spelling	xii
1.6 Homophones	xii
1.7 Opinion polls	xii
2 Types of pronunciation recorded	xiii
2.1 British pronunciation – RP	xiii
2.2 Other varieties of British English	xiii
2.3 American pronunciation – General American	xiv
3 The English phonemic system and its notation	xvi
3.1 Vowels and diphthongs	xvi
3.2 Consonants	xviii
3.3 Stress	xviii
3.4 Transcription systems	xviii
3.5 Syllabification	xix
3.6 Phonological processes in speech	xx
4 Foreign languages	xxi
4.1 Names	xxi
4.2 Transcriptions	xxi
5 Symbols	xxiii
5.1 Phonetic symbols	xxiii
5.2 Other symbols	xxv
The Dictionary A-Z	1–869
Abbreviations	870
Typographical conventions, stress marks, other symbols	inside back cover

Spelling-to-sound guidelines (grapheme-to-phoneme rules) for each letter of the alphabet are distributed throughout the dictionary, each at the head of the entries beginning with that letter.

(See also DOUBLE CONSONANT LETTERS: SHORT VOWEL, LONG VOWEL.)

Notes on pronunciation and phonetics

Affricates	15
Articulation	43
Aspiration	47
Assimilation	49
Australian English	57
Breaking	99
Citation form, dictionary entry and connected speech	143
Clicks	147
Clipping	149
Coarticulation	151
Combining forms	159
Compounds and phrases	163
Compression	165
Diphthongs	223
Double consonant letters	237
Double consonant sounds	238
Elision	254
E-mail and the WWW	259
Glottal stop	328
Hard attack	349
Liquids	443
Neutralization	511
Optional sounds	537
Phoneme and allophone	577
R-liaison	627
Short vowel, long vowel	699
Spelling pronunciation	723
Stress	741
Stress shift	742
Syllabic consonants	757
Syllables	758
T-voicing	763
Voiced and voiceless	833
Weak forms	843
Weak vowels	844