

Contents

Basil Cottle	xi
Classics
Towers and Citadels in the Aeneid NIALL RUDD	3
Anglo-Saxon Art
A Liturgical Interpretation of the Bewcastle Cross ÉAMONN Ó CARRAGÁIN	15
Ladders and Lines of Connection in Anglo-Saxon Religious Art and Literature RACHEL CRABTREE	43
Editions of Texts
The Insular Connections of a Sermon for Holy Innocents J. E. CROSS	57
'A Bird in Bishopswood': Some Newly-Discovered Lines of Alliterative Verse from the Late Fourteenth Century RUTH KENNEDY	71
Middle English Literature
The Owl and the Nightingale and the Bishops NICOLAS JACOBS	91
The Avowing of King Arthur J. A. BURROW	99
Relatives at the Court of Heaven: Contrasted Treatments of an Idea in Piers Plowman and Pearl IAN BISHOP	111
Will's Pilgrimage in Piers Plowman B MARGARET E. GOLDSMITH	119
Piers Plowman B. XVIII. 371: 'right ripe must' HANNEKE WIRTJES	133
Chaucer in the Suburbs JOHN SCATTERGOOD	145

Lexicography and Semantic History

Defining Daftness	165
T. L. BURTON
Thomas Warton and the Waxing of the Middle Ages	175
PAT ROGERS
Smart Talk by Miss Austen	187
MYRA STOKES	