

CONTENTS

	Preface	v
1	CLEARING THE AIR	1
	The Discipline of Linguistics	2
	Pronunciation and Spelling	3
	Some Common Linguistic Fallacies	6
	Linguistic Purity	12
	Climate and Speech	15
	The Dangers of Speculation	16
2	THE MATTER OF USAGE	21
	“Good” and “Bad” Usage	21
	Old Words and New	26
	Prescriptivism and Usage	29
	U and Non-U Usage	39
	Levels and Styles of Usage	47

3	SPEECH AND WRITING	52
	Distinctive Sounds	54
	The Vowels of English	56
	The Consonants of English	58
	Phonotactics	61
	Prosodic Features	64
	The Development of Our Writing System	70
	The English Spelling System	72
	The Spelling of Vowel Phonemes	73
	The Spelling of Consonant Phonemes	84
4	VOCABULARY	96
	Signs	96
	Morphemes	98
	Idioms	101
	Allomorphs	103
	Origins of the Vocabulary	106
	Changes of Form	115
	Obsolescence	121
	Words and Dictionaries	123
6	GRAMMAR	133
	Hierarchies and Trees	133
	Deep and Surface Structure	138
	Embedding	143
	Structural Signals	153
	Some Word Classes	165
	Some Grammatical Structures	169
	A Theory of Language	175
8	MEANING	183
	What Is Meaning?	184
	Words and Things	188
	Talking and Thinking	192

Dimensions of Meaning	196
How to Define a Word	208
Synonyms and Homonyms	215
Antonyms	222
Changes of Meaning	225
7 THE LANGUAGE OF LITERATURE	233
The Basic Functions of Language	233
Literary Discourse	238
Sound Patterns	241
Rhythm	246
Diction and Metaphor	249
Grammar and Beyond	254
8 LOGIC	262
The Logical Use of Language	263
Two Kinds of Argument: Deduction and Induction	268
How to Go Wrong	275
Too Little Evidence	278
Evidence of the Wrong Sort	284
Muddled Words	292
Wrong Inference	295
9 THE LIGHT OF HISTORY	303
Reconstructed Forms	303
The Indo-European "Family"	304
The Germanic Subgroup	305
Old English: Chronology and Dialects	309
Loan-Words in Old English	311
The Sounds and Spelling of Old English	316
How Old English Throws Light on Modern English	319
The Old English Inflectional System	319
A Word About Cases	320
The Source of the Modern English Genitive	321

The Source of Modern English Plural Forms	322
The Demonstrative Pronouns and Articles	324
Adjective and Adverb Forms	325
The Personal and Relative Pronouns	326
Verb Forms	329
A Quick Survey of Important Middle English Developments	333
The Great Vowel Shift	336
American English	338
Index	345