

Contents

Introduction

PART I: The Artist in the Continental Tradition

1. Rousseau and Brecht: Political Virtue and the Tragic Imagination 1
Benjamin R. Barber
  2. Baudelaire: Modernism in the Streets 31
Marshall Berman
  3. Dostoevsky and Unamuno: The Anti-Modern Personality 67
Michael A. Weinstein
  4. Camus: The Absurdity of Politics 87
Lyman Tower Sargent
  5. Trotsky and Malraux: The Political Imagination 117
Marc Scheinman
  6. Hermann Hesse: Passion and Politics 145
Samuel H. Hines Jr.
- ### PART II: The Artist in the English-Speaking World
7. Shakespeare: Poetic Understanding and Comic Action 165
Richard H. Cox
  8. Shakespeare: Elizabethan Statecraft and Machiavellianism 193
Tracy B. Strong
  9. Joyce: Political Development and the Aesthetic of Dubliners 221
Paul Delany
  10. Fenimore Cooper: Natty Bumppo and the Godfather 233
Wilson Carey McWilliams
  11. Melville: Billy Budd and the Context of Political Rule 245
James R. Hurtgen
  12. Mark Twain: Technology, Social Change, and Political Power 267
Molly Lyndon Shanley and Peter G. Stillman
  13. Faulkner, Naipaul and Zola: Violence and the Novel 291
Peter C. Sederberg
  14. Frank Capra: Politics and Film 317
Morris Dickstein

15. Orwell: Ethics and Politics in the Pre- Nineteen Eighty-Four Writings David Lowenthal	335
16. Kesey and Vonnegut: The Critique of Liberal Democracy in Contemporary Literature Michael J. Gargas McGrath	363
Contributors	385
Index	389