

Contents

	Illustrations	ix
	Foreword by Professor James V. Hatch	xi
	Acknowledgments	xiii
Chapter I:	James Albert Jackson: Profile of a Renaissance Man	1
Chapter II:	“J. A. Jackson’s Page” in Billboard : A Chronicle of Performance	17
Chapter III:	Setting Standards of Conduct	53
Chapter IV:	Improving Conditions on the TOBA Black Vaudeville Circuit	65
Chapter V:	Organizing Outdoor Entertainment: The Colored Actors’ Union; The National Association of Colored Fairs	101
Chapter VI:	Reception and Impact of “The Page”	116
	Appendices:
	A. The Colored Actors’ Union Theatrical Guide	135
	B. Frequently Mentioned Performers, Theaters, Plays, Companies and Groups	166
	C. Colored Vaudeville Acts working steadily with the Keith, Orpheum, Western Vaudeville and Associated Houses of the Big Circuits	168
	D. Theatre houses Playing Vaudeville, Pictures, and Dramas that cater to Black Patronage	169
	E. Musical Comedy: Reviews and Articles	171
	F. Jackson’s Membership in Fraternal Organizations and Clubs	172
	Bibliography	173
	Index	177