

Contents

	Preface and Acknowledgements	ix
	Notes on the Contributors	x
1	The Immorally Rich and the Richly Immoral: Raffles and the Plutocracy Nick Rance	1
2	West is East: Nayland Smith's Sinophobia and Sax Rohmer's Bank Balance Clive Bloom	22
3	Fear's Keen Knife: Suspense and the Female Detective, 1890–1920 Gwen Williams	37
4	A Society of Murderers Run on Sound Conservative Lines: The Life and Times of Sapper's Bulldog Drummond Hans Bertens	51
5	The Novels of Leslie Charteris Helena Blakemore	69
6	Ordeal by Analysis: Agatha Christie's The Thirteen Problems Gary Day	80
7	Dorothy Sayers: The Masks of Lord Peter Valerie Pitt	97
8	Elizabeth Bowen's Stories of Suspense J. A. Morris	114
9	But One Isn't Murdered: Elizabeth Bowen's The Little Girls Sandra Kemp	130

10	Fifty Million Copies: The Fiction of Dennis Wheatley Christopher Bentley	143
11	Margery Allingham and Reader Response Sue Asbee	161
12	The View from the Rear Window: The Fiction of Cornell Woolrich A. Robert Lee	174
13	Hitchcock and the Mechanics of Cinematic Suspense Lez Cooke	189
14	Grace under Pressure: Reading Alistair MacLean Brian Docherty	203
15	Elizabeth Jenkins: Perhaps the History Woman Ian MacKillop	225
16	Feminist Detective Fiction Maggie Humm	237
17	The Gentleman's Excuse-me: The Male Apologist and the Experience of Realism in James Herbert's The Magic Cottage Andrew Smith	255
	Index	271