

Contents

List of primary sources 7

Introduction 9

Love poems, occasional poems, and songs 17

To the Countess of Salisbury, with music by William Webb 19

'Your smiles are not' 23

'Though Regions farr' 24

'Come not to me' 26

A Paradox 30

'Hide not thy love' and 'Though thanckful hands' 32

A Dialogue betwixt Time and a Pilgrime, with music by Henry Lawes 43

On hearing her Majesty sing, with music by Henry Lawes 47

Elegy on the death of the King of Sweden: sent to Thomas Carew 48

Verse Epistle to Charles I; 'Tis but a while' 50

An Elegie Made by Mr Aurelian Townshend in remembrance of the Ladie Venetia Digby 52

A Funerall Elegie 54

'Thou Shepheard, whose intentive eye' with music by Henry Lawes 57

'When we were parted', with music by Henry Lawes 61

'Thou art soe faire', with music by Henry Lawes 63

'Delicate Beauty', with music by Henry Lawes 65

'Let not thy beauty', with music by Henry Lawes 67

*An Elegie upon the untymely death of the rightly honorable
Edward Sackville* 68

Fragments of a poem on the death of Charles I 70

Verses for court masques 71

Verses for court masques: prefatory note 73

Albions Triumph (1631) 75

Tempe Restor'd (1631) 93

The masque after Florimène (1635) 109

A Bacchanall in a maske ... 1636, with music by Henry Lawes 115

Contents

Poems of commendation 119

To ... Lord Cary, ..., before Romulus and Tarquin (1638) 121

*To ... Mr. Henry, and Mr. William Lawes, ..., before Choice
Psalms* (1648) 122

*A Dialogue: Amyntas, ho!, before Clement Barksdale, Nympha
Libethris* (1651) 123

Index of first lines 125