

CONTENTS

	PAGE
PREFACE	ix
CHAPTER
I. GENERAL FEATURES OF THE MIDDLE ENGLISH PERIOD	1
Characteristics of Middle English. Foreign Element. No Standard Language. Weakening of Unaccented Syllables. Simplification of Inflections. Use of Pronouns, Prepositions, and Conjunctions. Dates suggested for Period. Dialects and their Boundaries. Changes in Orthography.
II. VOCABULARY. THE FOREIGN ELEMENT IN MIDDLE ENGLISH	17
The Old Norse Element in Old and Middle English. Influence on Vocabulary. Modifications of Meaning. Tests of Old Norse Origin. Influence on Grammar and Syntax. French Influence on Old and Middle English. French in Law Courts and Schools. Position in general of French beside English. Later Borrowings from Central French. Influence of French Literature. Kind of Words Borrowed. Influence on Spelling, Accidence, and Syntax. Old Norse and French Elements Compared. Low German Element in Old and Middle English. Flemish Adventurers and Traders. Influence on Vocabulary.
III. PHONOLOGY. A. ISOLATIVE CHANGES	46
Old English Vowels in Middle English. Table of Changes. Monophthongization of Diphthongs. Formation of New Diphthongs. Consonants.
IV. B. COMBINATIVE CHANGES	61
Lengthenings in Old English and Modification in Middle English. Lengthenings in Middle English. Shortenings in Old English; in Middle English. Shortenings and Lengthenings on Same Principle.

CHAPTER	PAGE
V. ACCIDENCE. NOUNS AND ADJECTIVES	72
Old English Declension of Nouns. Simplification in Middle English. Spread of -es Plurals. Loss of Case Distinction. Traces of old Inflections in the South. Old English Declension of Adjectives. Simplification in Middle English. Traces of old Inflections in the South. Comparison of Adjectives. Irregular Comparison. Numerals.
VI. PRONOUNS AND ADVERBS	86
Stressed and Unstressed Forms. O.E. Pronouns of the First Person. ic and us in Middle English. O.E. Pronouns of the Second Person. 3ē , ēow in Middle English. O.E. Pronouns of the Third Person. Forms for she , its and the Plural Pronouns in Middle English. Dual Pronouns. Reflexive Demonstrative. Relative. Interrogative. Indefinite.
VII. VERBS	101
Conjugation of a Verb in Old and Middle English. Treatment of O.E. Personal Endings for Indicative, Present Infinitive and Participles, in Middle English. Spread of Weak Preterites. Borrowings between Classes of Strong Verbs and Analogical Formations. Weak Verbs in Old and Middle English. Verbs with bb and cg in Stem. Preterite Present Verbs. Anomalous Verbs.
TABLE OF CHARACTERISTICS OF THE DIALECTS	115
INDEX	117
MAP
POSITION OF MIDDLE ENGLISH DIALECTS	10