

---

CONTENTS

---

Table of Songs	page 9
Preface with Note on Abbreviations	11
Introduction to the Texts – E. J. Dobson	15
The Songs before 1300	16
The Songs after 1350	21
Editorial Principles and Methods (English Texts)	27
Middle English Pronunciation and Metre	39
The Spelling of the English Texts	44
The Latin Texts and their Scansion	47
Introduction to the Music – F. Ll. Harrison	55
Sources and Transmission	55
Clerical Repertory in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Centuries	55
‘Courtly’ Song	58
The Winchester Songs	62
Fourteenth-Century Terminology	63
Part-Music Techniques	65
Tune Characteristics	66
Rhythm and Unit-Design	67
Plainsong and its Notation	72
Singing Timbres	73
Asymmetrical Rhythm	74
Saint Godric’s Songs	75
Stanzaic Songs in Asymmetrical Rhythm	76
Sequences: Their Context and Design	77
Lai and Planctus	83
The Latin Crucifixion Laments	89
The English Laments	91
‘Sumer is icumen in’: Context and Technique	93
Carol Usage and Form	96
Context and Structure	98
Texts and Textual Commentary – E. J. Dobson	103
I. Religious Songs by Saint Godric	103
II. Songs of the Earlier Thirteenth Century	110
III. Crucifixion Laments of the Thirteenth Century	146
IV. Songs of the Later Thirteenth and Early Fourteenth Centuries	166
V. Songs in Two Manuscripts of about 1400	205

Music – edited by F. Ll. Harrison	page 227
Musical Commentary – F. Ll. Harrison	295
I. Religious Songs by Saint Godric	295
II. Songs of the Earlier Thirteenth Century	296
III. Crucifixion Laments of the Thirteenth Century	300
IV. Songs of the Later Thirteenth and Early Fourteenth Centuries	302
V. Songs in Two Manuscripts of about 1400	310
Appendices
1. Pronunciation Tables	317
2. Translations of Texts	323
3. Notes on Performance	331