

Contents

	Page
General Introduction
The poetry of Chaucer's age	1
Narrative poetry	3
Poetry for listeners	7
Familiarity	9
Diffuseness	11
Metaphor and simile	13
Description	15
Sound-effects	17
Variety and difference: dialect and literary tradition	20
Alliterative verse	23
Metrical verse	25
Literary genre	26
Social context	33
Spelling and pronunciation	34
Pronunciation
vowels	36
diphthongs	37
spelling of vowels	37
consonants	37
Grammar and vocabulary	38
Suggestions for further reading	40
Sir Orfeo
Introduction	41
Text	50
Sir Gawain and the Green Knight
Introduction	80
Text	88
Patience
Introduction	113
Text	120
Langland: Piers Plowman
Introduction	136
Text	144

vi Contents

Chaucer: The Friar's Tale

Introduction	169
Text	176

Short poems

Introduction	194
1 Lullaby	202
2 Lenten is Come	206
3 For Women	208
4 Quia Amore Langueo	210
5 Chaucer: Balade de Bon Conseyl	216
6 Chaucer: Balade to Rosemounde	218
7 Blacksmiths	220

Acknowledgements

The publishers' thanks are due to the following for permission to reproduce copyright material: Faber & Faber Ltd and Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, Inc. for an extract from T. S. Eliot's 'Little Gidding' (Collected poems 1909-1962); Faber & Faber Ltd and Random House, Inc. for an extract from W. H. Auden's 'To a Writer on His Birthday' (Collected shorter poems 1930-1944).