

Contents

Preface	7
Part One Introduction
1 Cultural Studies and the Centre: some problematics and problems Stuart Hall	15
2 Barrington Moore, Perry Anderson and English social development Richard Johnson	48
Part Two Ethnography
3 Introduction to ethnography at the Centre Roger Grimshaw, Dorothy Hobson, Paul Willis	73
4 Subcultural conflict and working-class community Phil Cohen	78
5 Notes on method Paul Willis	88
6 Green Farm Scout Camp Roger Grimshaw	96
7 Housewives and the mass media Dorothy Hobson	105
Part Three Media Studies
8 Introduction to Media Studies at the Centre Stuart Hall	117
9 The ideological dimension of media messages Marina Camargo Heck	122
10 Encoding/decoding Stuart Hall	128
11 Television news and the Social Contract Ian Connell	139
12 Recent developments in theories of language and ideology: a critical note Stuart Hall	157
13 Texts, readers, subjects Dave Morley	163
Part Four Language
14 Introduction to Language Studies at the Centre Chris Weedon, Andrew Tolson, Frank Mort	177
15 Ideology and subjectivity John Ellis	186
16 Theories of language and subjectivity Chris Weedon, Andrew Tolson, Frank Mort (with help from Andrew Lowe)	195

6	Contents
17	Sexuality for sale Janice Winship	217
Part Five English Studies
18	Literature/society: mapping the field The Literature and Society Group, 1972-3	227
19	Recent developments in English Studies at the Centre The English Studies Group, 1978-9	235
20	Selective guide to further reading and contacts	269
	Notes and references	277
	Index	305