

CONTENTS

Introduction: The Originating Force of Eighteenth-Century Criticism	I
PART ONE: METAMORPHOSES
1 Practical Theorist: Dryden's "Variety of Models"	15
2 The Paradox of Refinement: Progress and Decline in Literature	44
3 "So Far Retir'd from Happy Pieties": The Rise of Modern Myth	76
PART TWO: JUDGMENT AND VALUES, LITERARY AND SOCIAL
4 Non Disputandum : Hume's Critique of Criticism	103
5 Estrangement: The Problem of Ethics and Aesthetics	126
6 Kinds, Canons, and Readers	151
PART THREE: METHODS AND AIMS
7 Johnson and the Contraries of Criticism	175
8 The New Rhetoricians: Semiotics, Theory, and Psychology	194
9 What Is Poetry?	220
Janus: Criticism and the Contemporary	251
Notes	273
Index	309