
CONTENTS

Acknowledgements

List of Illustrations

PROLOGUE

'A great desire to see forraine Countries'

13

1. PREPARATIONS AND PRECAUTIONS

"Tis the way to be respected'

19

2. ACROSS THE CHANNEL

'A desperately rough passage'

41

3. PARIS

'When an Englishman comes to Paris he cannot appear until he has undergone a total metamorphosis'

59

4. TOURING IN FRANCE

'The concourse of English who come hither, like simple birds of passage, allow themselves to be plucked by the people of the country'

75

5. THE WAYS TO ITALY

'Dangerous waters' and 'frightful Alps'

91

6. PIEDMONT AND LOMBARDY

'A true spring in the air in the midst of winter'

103

7. VENICE

'The brothel of Europe'

121

8. ACROSS THE APENNINES TO FLORENCE

'A scene of enchantment, a city planted in a garden'

141

9. FROM SIENA TO ROME

'One cannot walk fifty paces without observing some remains of its ancient grandeur'

155

10. NAPLES AND THE BURIED CITIES

'There cannot in all respects be a more agreeable place to live in'

183

11. SWITZERLAND, GERMANY AND THE LOW COUNTRIES

'A vast variety of prospects'

195

12. WILDER SHORES

'Some we steal, some we buy'

215

EPILOGUE

'The pleasure and knowledge he finds in every place'

235

SOURCES

249

INDEX

253