

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Contributors	x
Introduction: Space for thinking in families Sally Box	1
1 The family and its dynamics Margot Waddell	9
2 An outline of the history and current status of family therapy Susan Zawada	25
3 Introducing families to family work Beta Copley	35
4 Re-enactment as an unwitting professional response to family dynamics Ronald Britton	48
5 Working with the dynamics of the session Sally Box	59
6 Making space for parents Anna Halton and Jeanne Magagna	75
7 Psychic pain and psychic damage Gianna Henry	93
8 The micro-environment Arthur Hyatt Williams	105
9 The aftermath of murder Roger Kennedy and Jeanne Magagna	120

viii Contents

10	Use of an ending to work with a family's difficulty about differentiation Nonie Insall	136
11	Change in families: some concluding thoughts Sally Box	153
	Glossary: A discussion and application of terms Errica Moustaki	160
	Bibliography	173
	Index	177