

---

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	The children	8
3	Consultation	25
4	Parents as partners	35
5	Family therapy	41
6	The child's 'symptoms' and the family system	57
7	The family under stress	67
8	Involving parents: the early stages	79
9	Understanding and helping the child and his family	92
10	Troubled children, troubled family systems: two case-histories	107
11	Partnership and the family system	119
12	Learning difficulties	127
13	Counselling in a family-systems framework	138
14	Joint systems: psychologist, family and school	144
15	Joint systems and school refusal	154
16	Parents and children from different cultural backgrounds	163
17	The interrelationship between helping professionals	175
18	Family-systems theory and the practising educational psychologist	190
	References	199
	Name index	207
	Subject index	209