

Contents

Foreword	IX
Preface	XI
The Prophet and the Long Spoons	XIII
Tips for the Reader	1
Who is Healthy?	2
Learn to Make Distinctions	2
Psychotherapy Instead of Psychopathology	2
Self-Help	5
Why Stories, Parables, and Myths?	7
How Did Positive Psychotherapy (Differentiation Analysis) Arise?	7
Treatment Shortened?	9
Three Focal Points of Differentiation Analysis	11
A Guide to the Book	12
Psychotherapy Today	14
CHAPTER I: DIFFERENTIATION ANALYTICAL THEORY
Thoughts on (Positive Psychotherapy) Education	17
Shadows on the Sundial	17
Education and Reeducation	17
Desperation and Hope	19
Functional change in Education and Psychotherapy	20
Social Conflicts — Norms	22
Examples of Social Conflict Situations in Education	22
Examples of Social Conflict Situations in Psychotherapy	24
Differentiation Analytical Theory (Positive Psychotherapy)	27
Actual Capabilities	27
Basic Capabilities	33
Actual and Basic Conflict	34
Parental Types	37

CHAPTER II: ACTUAL CAPABILITIES
(PRIMARY AND SECONDARY CAPABILITIES)

Actual Capabilities	43
The Sightseers and the Elephant	43
What are the Functions of the Actual Capabilities?	43
Is One Actual Capability More Important than Another?	47
Primary Capabilities	48
Capabilities: The Influence of Anxiety, Aggression, and Imitation	48
Model	49
Faith	49
Time	50
Doubt	51
Hope	52
Trust and Confidence	53
Patience	54
Certainty	55
Love — Contact — Sexuality	56
Unity	59
Anxiety, Aggression, and Imitation as Potential Sources of Conflict	60
Secondary Capabilities	68
The Girl with the Red Velvet Dress	68
Punctuality	68
Cleanliness	72
Orderliness	75
Obedience	77
Politeness	80
Honesty	83
Justice	86
Ambition — Achievement	89
Frugality	93
Dependability — Exactness — Conscientiousness	96

CHAPTER III: MISUNDERSTANDINGS IN CHILD-RAISING,
PARTNERSHIP AND PSYCHOTHERAPY

Misunderstandings	101
About the Crow and the Peacock	101
The Goal and Content of Child-Raising	102
The Relativity of Values	105
The Dimension of Time and the Image of Man	109
Development	112
Identity Crisis	115
Man — Animal	120

Inborn — Acquired	123
Uniqueness	127
The Unconscious	131
Identification — Projection	134
Generalization	139
Prejudice	142
Man and Wife	144
Justice — Love	148
Sex	153
Sex — Sexuality — Love	155
Caricatures of Love	163
Loss of Unity	169
Health — Sickness	172
Faith — Religion — Church	174
Conditional and Determined Fate	181
Death	185
 CHAPTER IV: EDUCATION — SELF-HELP — PSYCHOTHERAPY
An Easy Cure	200
Introduction to Self-Help	201
Three Basic Principles of Interpersonal Relationships	201
Interaction Analysis	202
Model of the Stages of an Interaction	203
Self-Help	206
Stage 1: Distancing/Observation	206
Stage 2: Inventory	210
Stage 3: Situational Encouragement	212
Stage 4: Verbalization	215
Stage 5: Goal Expansion	219
Family Group — Parental Group — Partner Group	222
Other People's Problems	222
The Family Group	224
The Parent Group	232
The Partner Group	234
Differentiation Analysis Psychotherapy	237
Bibliography	243
Subject Index	245