

Contents

	Introduction: The Novel as Subversion	3
> 1	Don Quixote as Archetypal Artist and Don Quixote as Archetypal Novel	55
2	Daniel Defoe: The Politics of Necessity	68
3	Samuel Richardson and Clarissa	99
4	Henry Fielding: The Novel, the Epic, and the Comic Sense of Life	146
5	Smollett's Humphry Clinker: The Choleric Temper	183
6	Tristram Shandy, the Sentimental Novel, and Sentimentalists	205
7	Gothic, Gothicism, and Gothicists	235
8	Near-Novels	275
9	The Development of Technique in the Eighteenth-Century Novel	290
	A Chronology of Eighteenth-Century Fiction and Near-Fiction	337
	Selected Bibliography	343
	Index	351