
Contents

List of Plates	ix
Editor's Preface	xii
Preface	xiv
1. The background: 1600—25
I Causes of political instability	1
II Queen Elizabeth and James I	6
III Literature and society	9
IV Staging	13
V Art, music and science	15
2. Late Elizabethan literature
I The new styles and forms	20
II Towards a new poetry: from Campion to Drayton and Hall	22
III Towards a new drama: Marston and Chapman	29
IV Popular writers and translators: Heywood, Dekker, Breton and Fairfax	33
V Bacon	37
3. Donne and Jonson
I Introduction to metaphysical poetry and Donne's life	40
II Donne's secular poetry	41
III Donne's religious poetry	46
IV Donne's prose	47
V Jonson's classicism and poetry	50
VI Jonson's criticism	55
VII Jonson's plays	56
4. Jacobean literature
I Drama: Fletcher, Middleton and Webster	62
II Spenserian and other poets	72
III Prose: Andrewes and Burton	78

5.	The background: 1625–60
	I Charles I	83
	II Civil War and Execution of Charles I	85
	III Cromwell and the Protectorates	88
	IV The arts under Charles I	91
	V Arts and Science during the Interregnum	95
6.	Caroline literature
	I New directions	99
	II Poet priests: Herbert, Crashaw and King	100
	III From Cavalier to early Neo-Classical poetry: Carew, Suckling, Waller and Denham	108
	IV Dramatists: Ford, Massinger, Shirley and Davenant	117
	V Prose and Sir Thomas Browne	123
7.	Civil War and Interregnum literature
	I Disillusionment, mysticism and rationalism	127
	II From Cavalier to mystical poetry: Herrick and Lovelace to Marvell and Vaughan	128
	III From bizarre wit towards a rational poetry: Cleveland to Cowley	142
	IV The Cambridge Platonists	147
	V Anglican prose: Taylor and Walton	148
	VI New philosophical and political ideas: Hobbes and others.	151
8.	Milton
	I Life and prose writings	156
	II Poetry to 1650: Nativity Ode to sonnets	160
	III Paradise Lost	167
	IV Paradise Regain'd and Samson Agonistes	174
9.	The background: 1660–1700
	I Charles II	177
	II James II and William	180
	III The arts and society	182
	IV Science and Newton	190
10.	Restoration literature
	I Towards Neo-Classicism	193
	II Satire and satirists: Butler, Rochester and Oldham	194
	III Other poets: Cotton and Traherne	200
	IV Prose: Bunyan, Baxter, Sprat and Glanvill	205

V	From heroic plays to sentimental tragedy: Settle to Otway	211
VI	Comedy: Etherege, Wycherley and Shadwell	219
11.	Dryden
I	Early poetry	227
II	The major poems: MacFlecknoe to Religio Laici	230
III	Later poetry: odes, translations and epistles	235
IV	Plays	240
V	Criticism and prose	244
12.	Williamite literature
I	Neo-Classical criticism and the reformation of manners	247
II	Congreve and drama	248
III	New trends in poetry	255
IV	Prose: Halifax and Temple	256
V	Latitudinarians and Locke	260
	Bibliographies	264
	Further reading	266
	Chronological table 1600–1700	269
	Index	285