

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
List of abbreviations	11
Part One: Sweet Land of Liberty
1 Prologue: Jacobean and Caroline political trends	15
2 Denham's 'Cooper's Hill' and the constitution: a royalist viewpoint	19
3 Marvell and the constitution: a Parliamentary viewpoint	34
4 Liberty and order: the wider spectrum Filmer – Hobbes – The Putney Debates – Locke	43
5 Milton: the political pamphlets and Paradise Lost	77
6 Dryden: Absalom and Achitophel and the Popish Plot	98
7 The satirical aftermath: Dryden, Oldham, Shadwell and Settle	114
Part Two: The Woman's Workhouse
8 Prologue: 'Love, the Life of Life'	124
9 The inheritance from the Middle Ages	126
10 Propagation and contraception in the seventeenth century	129
11 Love, sex and attitudes to women in the poetry	134
12 The theory and practice of Protestant marriage	149
13 Milton: from tracts on divorce to Paradise Lost	156
14 'Imparadist in One Anothers Arms' or 'The Ecclesiastical Mouse-trap': marriage in Restoration comedy	165
Postscript: The flight of the butterflies	196
Notes and references	201
Suggestions for further reading	209
Index	211