

Divorce Mediation: Perspectives on the Field

Journal of Divorce
Volume 8, Numbers 3/4

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Reflections on the Growth and Significance of Divorce Mediation	3
William G. Neville
Through an Interdisciplinary Mirror: Attorney-Therapist Similarities	9
Joseph L. Steinberg
Mediation and Mutuality	9
Similarities	10
Interviewing Techniques	12
The Present and Future Role of Higher Education in Divorce Mediation: Problems and Promise in Teaching, Research, and Service	15
Elizabeth Janssen Koopman
Curricular Issues in Divorce Mediation Education	16
Potential Contributions of Increased Involvement of Higher Education	22
Problematic Issues in Academic Involvement	25
Summary	31

Adjudication and Mediation: A Comparison of Custody Decision-Making Processes Involving Third Parties	33
Linda K. Girdner
Introduction	33
Adjudication	37
Mediation	39
Implications for Practitioners	42
Directions for Future Research	43
Mediator's Notebook: Reflections on Promoting Equal Empowerment and Entitlements for Women	49
Isolina Ricci
Vulnerable Versus Robust Premises for Entitlement or Empowerment	51
Two Self-Defeating Patterns in Women	52
Some Interventions for Balancing Power	55
Some Economic Indicators of Imbalance	58
Balancing Power Through Education and Skill Building	58
Summary	60
The Power of Including Children in Custody Mediation	63
Robin Drapkin
Florence Bienenfeld
Preparing the Child for Mediation	66
Approaching the Child	69
The Middle Phase	72
Closing With the Child	81
Monitoring the Plan	88
Conclusion	94
Family Mediation: A Descriptive Case Study	97
Jennifer Manocherian
Case Study	99
Technology and Mediator Training: Using Videotaping for Experiential Learning	119
Alison Taylor
Videotape Criteria Examined	121
Available Videotapes Critiqued	124

Videotapes and Roleplays in Training	127
Videotaping and Ongoing Review and Supervision	127
Implications for Trainers, Professional Societies	128
Conclusion	129
Joint Custody Reconsidered: Systemic Criteria for Mediation	131
Sandra S. Volgy
Craig A. Everett
Family Assessment Criteria for Joint Custody	138
Conclusions	148
The Effect of Cooperation on Egocentrism in Divorce Mediation: A Simulation Study	151
Susan M. Worley
Andrew I. Schwebel
Method	154
Results	158
Discussion	160
Improving Communication in Divorce Mediation	167
Elizabeth A. Beck
Charles E. Beck
Mediation in Divorce	168
Communication Climates	171
Significance	174
The Attorney as Mediator: Handling Dual Representation of Marrying and Divorcing Couples	177
John F. Nichols
Summary	183
Mediation: A Method of Law and Psychology in the Netherlands	185
G. Peter Hoefnagels
The Interface Between the Legal and Psychological Aspects of Divorce in Mediation	186
The Phases of Mediation	188
Issues of Spousal Maintenance in Mediation	190