

---

Contents

Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
χ Introduction	1

PART I

Literary Origins

1 Fact and fiction
Lady Mary Wroath and Anne Weamys	11
2 Publish – and be damned . . . as a woman
Katherine Philips	23
3 Biographical beginnings
Anne Clifford, Lucy Hutchinson, Anne Fanshawe, Margaret Cavendish	30
χ 4 ‘The fair triumvirate of wits’
Aphra Behn, Delarivière Manley, Eliza Haywood	47

PART II

Literary Standards

5 Gross deception
100 women novelists	115
χ6 Power and propaganda	138
χ7 The myth of the isolated achievement	145
χ 8 Male romance	152

Contents

PART III
Literary Achievements

- 9 Women's view: women critics 173
- 10 Sarah Fielding and misrepresentation 180
- 11 Charlotte Lennox and North America 194
- 12 Elizabeth Inchbald and independence 206
- 13 Charlotte Smith and real life 217
- ✕ 14 Ann Radcliffe and the Gothic 230
- 15 Mary Wollstonecraft, Mary Hays and autobiographical fiction 246
- 16 Fanny Burney, Maria Edgeworth and the height ✕ of achievement 270
- 17 Lady Morgan and political fiction 301
- 18 Amelia Opie and the novel of ideas 315
- 19 Mary Brunton: premature death and a rich bequest 325
- Bibliography 339
- Index 348