

Contents

1	The Novel and Middle-Class England	7
2	Jane Austen's Originality: Emma	21
3	Doubts and Reticence: Sense and Sensibility to Persuasion	30
4	Dickens: Dombey and Son , Bleak House	52
5	Love and Politics in the English Novel, 1840s-1860s	69
6	Trollope's 'Political' Novels: Phineas Finn to The Duke's Children	83
7	Middlemarch and Modern Society	102
8	'Fits of Spiritual Dread': George Eliot and Later Novelists	114
9	Hardy's Universe: Tess of the d'Urbervilles	131
10	Henry James: The Ambassadors	148
11	Conrad's Trust in Life: Nostromo	166
12	D. H. Lawrence: Sons and Lovers , Women in Love	185
13	Conclusion	199
	Notes	203
	Index	205