

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

1. The Caroline Professionals

The Profession 1

A Perspective on the Professionals 5

A Sociopolitical Context 10

A Social and Family Context 20

Socialization 30

2. Massinger's Tragicomedy of Reformation

The Disaffections of Massinger's Privileged Patrons 33

Social and Political Accommodation 39

The Art of Redemptive Conversion 46

Reflection and Reciprocity in THE PICTURE 51

3. Ford's Tragedy of Ritual Suffering

The Gentility of John Ford 73

Political and Social Resignation 75

Ceremonial Style 85

Ritual Roles in THE BROKEN HEART 91

4. Shirley's Social Comedy of Adaptation to Degree

Shirley's Reverence for Degree 112

Degree's Prerogatives, Abuses, and Standards 117

The Clean Wit of Playful Conformity 130

Adapting Roles in HYDE PARK 138

5. Brome's Comedy of Types and Inversions

The Revisionary Potential of Brome's Backgrounds 155

Political and Social Questioning 157

Satiric Parodies and Inversions 171

Generating Experimental Reform in THE ANTIPODES 177

Epilogue 197

Notes 199

Works Cited 215

Index 226