

Contents

Acknowledgments	11
Introduction	13
CHAPTER ONE: Narrative as Communication— the Functionalist Approach	29
Narrative as Communication	29
The Implied Author	34
The Implied Reader	40
The Text-Reality Relationship	47
The Text-Reader Relationship	53
Narrative Perspectives	55
Perspectives as Bearers of Heteroglossia	61
The Theme-and-Horizon Structure	64
The Wandering Viewpoint	65
The Filling in of Blanks	67
The Act of Reading as the Experience of an Event	70
Some Objections to Iser's Functional Approach	72
CHAPTER TWO: Vietnam (Re)visited: Narrative Communication in If I Die in a Combat Zone	76
Introduction	76
The Perspective of the Narrator	78
Ethos	82
Overt Narration	83
Covert Narration	89
Limited Scope	91
The Perspective of the Narratee	92
The Perspective of the Protagonist	97
"O'Brien"-the-Character	98
Direct Definition	99
Indirect Presentation	102

"O'Brien"-the-Soldier	108
The Perspectives of Other Characters; or the War of Languages	113
Reading If I Die : A Journey Through Hell	121
CHAPTER THREE: Going After the War Experience:
Narrative Communication in Going After Cacciato	135
Introduction	135
In the Observation Tower	138
On the Road to Paris	142
Berlin as Literary Artist	142
Visualizer – Narrator	143
Visualizer – Protagonist	144
The Mental Dialogues	148
The Mental Landscapes	157
The Collapse of Realism	162
The War Stories	165
Covert Narration	166
Covert Narration and Focalization	169
Covert Narration, Focalization, and "Authorial" Commentary	176
Reading Going After Cacciato	187
The Enigmas	187
The Clues	190
The Climax	196
Closure	199
Conclusion	201
CHAPTER FOUR: A True War Story That Never Happened:
Narrative Communication in The Things They Carried	203
Introduction	203
The Perspective of the Narrator	206
The Storyteller	207
Narrator as Character	208
Narrator as Writer	212
Narrator as Literary Theorist	214
The Perspective of the Narratee	221
The Perspective of the Protagonist	224
"The Man I Killed"	226
"Ambush"	227
"On the Rainy River"	230

"The Ghost Soldiers"	238
Outsiders and Insiders	239
The Evil Ghost.	241
The Perspectives of Other Characters.	245
Other Protagonists: "The Things They Carried"	245
Jimmy Cross as Dreamer.	246
The Load of the Grunts	248
Other Protagonists: "Speaking of Courage"	254
In Search of a Listener	256
Bowker's Story.	258
Other Characters; or, The Things Their Minds
Made Them Do	260
Other Narrators	265
Reading The Things They Carried	271
Claims and Disclaimers.	273
Ted Lavender	274
"Spin," and/or Comic Interlude	276
Curt Lemon.	277
The Young Man of About Twenty	279
Kiowa	280
The Field Remembered	280
The Field Visited.	282
Centripetal Forces.	287
"The Lives of the Dead" as Coda	289
Conclusion.	292
Conclusion.	294
General Characteristics of O'Brien's Communicative
Approach.	294
Individual Features and Differences	298
Works Cited and Consulted	304
Primary Works by Tim O'Brien	304
Earlier Versions of Stories That Later Appeared in the
Above Texts.	304
Secondary Works.	305
Index	310