

Contents

Conventions and References	xi
Abbreviations	xii
1. INTRODUCTION	I
2. REHEARSAL IN THE THEATRES OF PETER QUINCE AND BEN JONSON	22
Rehearsal Lexically	22
Background	25
Provincial Rehearsal	26
Mayors' rehearsals	26
How plays were prepared	28
Academic Rehearsal	34
3. REHEARSAL IN SHAKESPEARE'S THEATRE	46
Background	46
Master of the Revels' Rehearsal	49
Preparing a Play for the Stage	52
Number of days to produce a play	52
Reading	59
Parts and study	61
Pronunciation and gesture	72
The group rehearsal	76
Time of group rehearsal	78
Place of general and partial rehearsals	79
Rehearsal, Writing, and Revision	80
The book-holder (prompter)	80
The manager	81

The author	84
The Nature of Performance	92
Book-holders in performance	94
Actors and parts in performance	98
First performance	113
First performance and the audience	120
Conclusion	121
The Future of the Renaissance Theatre	122
4. REHEARSAL IN BETTERTON'S THEATRE	124
Background	124
Restoration Theatre Companies	126
The Authority of Buckingham's The Rehearsal	128
Public Theatre Rehearsal	139
Seasonal rehearsal	139
Number of days to produce a play	141
Reading	146
Parts	148
'Lines'	152
Study	153
Pronunciation and gesture	157
Actor-training and rehearsal	160
Composers, authors, and individual rehearsal	164
Group Rehearsal	165
Authors and rehearsal	169
Managers and rehearsal	176
Prompters and rehearsal	179
The Master of the Revels as reviser	180
Performance	181
Actors and performance	181
Actors and extemporization	183
Prompter and performance	185
The first night	187
Conclusion	193

5. REHEARSAL IN CIBBER'S THEATRE	195
Introduction	195
Background	197
Public Theatre Rehearsal	198
Rehearsal plays and rehearsal	200
Number of days to produce a play	203
Actor training	205
Reading	207
Casts and parts	211
Study	214
Group Rehearsal	218
Nature of rehearsal	218
Prompters and rehearsal	221
Authors and rehearsal	224
Managers and rehearsal	227
Actors and rehearsal	231
Performance	234
The prompter and performance	234
Conclusion	235
The first-night audience	235
The author and the text	236
6. REHEARSAL IN GARRICK'S THEATRE— AND LATER	240
Background	240
Rehearsal Plays	241
Public Theatre Rehearsal	245
Number of rehearsals	245
Reading	250
Parts	253
Garrick, Macklin, and instruction	261
The content of rehearsal	266
Authors and rehearsal	270

Managers and rehearsal	272
Prompters and rehearsal	274
Performance	276
Actors in performance	276
Actors and extemporization	279
First performance	281
Part-based revision	284
Conclusion	287
Select Bibliography	291
Index	323