

CONTENTS

Introduction	v
Acknowledgments	vi
I. GENERAL
Folklore in English Literature Katharine M. Briggs	3
Fairies in Childrens' Books Katharine M. Briggs	11
Reflections of a Storyteller--Her Native Folktales Eileen Colwell	22
Tracking Down Elves in Folklore Mary Calhoun	28
II. ENGLAND
Some Folktales and Legends from Northern England John D. A. Widdowson	34
Ian Serrailier and the Golden World Brian W. Alderson	57
On Writing about King Alfred C. Walter Hodges	67
Legends of the Grail Gwendolyn Bowers	71
Our Fairy Godmother: Marie L. Shedlock Anne Carroll Moore	79
Memories of My Father, Joseph Jacobs May Bradshaw Hays	86

A Visit with Enys Tregarthen Harriet S. Wright	93
---	----

III. IRELAND

Folklore, Preserving the People's Past Séamas O Catháin	98
Stories and Storytelling in Ireland Kevin Danaher	107
Story-Telling in Ireland Padraic Colum	115
Ella Young--How She Came to Know the Fairies Jane Verne Terrill	119

IV. SCOTLAND

Folklore--One Writer's View Mollie Hunter	123
A Sassenach in the Highlands Edith Ballinger Price	134
Scottish History Tales Sorche Nic Leodhas	139
Bibliography of Scottish Folk Lore and Folk Tales Alison Douglas	145

V. WALES

The Welsh Folk Tale: Its Collection and Study Robin Gwyndaf	150
High Fantasy and Heroic Romance Lloyd Alexander	162

VI. U.S. A.

Favorite Folktales of the British Isles in American Culture as Perceived by Children's Librarians Eloise Norton	172
Our British Folk Heritage--Implanted or Shelved? Ada McCaa Sumrall	190

Using Traditional Folk Stories in Untraditional Ways in Helping Children Clarify Their Values and Feelings Robert Stahl	211
NYPL Storyteller's Choice and Comments Eloise Norton	219
Appendix A: British Folktales in the Culture of American Children	225
Appendix B: Added Entries by Participants	228
Appendix C: Amgueddfa Werin Cymru-Welsh Folk Museum y Brenin Arthur/King Arthur Robin Gwyndaf	230
Appendix D: Places Associated with Arthur Iïid E. Anthony	233
Appendix E: Folk Literature of the British Isles (For Study Tour 1976) Eloise Norton	236
Index	251