

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	Vivian MERCIER	9
ASPECTS OF IRISH COMEDY
X The Funny Irishman	Patrick RAFROIDI	17
Sheridan's Debt to Ireland	Bernard ESCARBELT	25
Broadbent and Doyle, Two Shavian Archetypes	William PARKER	39
Ironic Reversal as Theme and Technique in Synge's Shorter Comedies	Gérard LEBLANC	51
IRISH THEATRE AS A MIRROR OF NATIONAL POLITICS AND SOCIETY
X Plays for Ireland	Patrick RAFROIDI	67
The Easter Rising Seen from the Tenements	Jeanne LEZON	75
From the Shadow of War to the Broken Tassie	Bernard MATHELIN	97
Two Committed Playwrights : Wesker and O'Casey	Bernard LEROY	107
Alas, Poor Brendan!	Françoise BOREL	119
John Brendan Keane and the New Irish Rural Drama	Jean-Michel PANNECOUCKE	137
MYTH AND IRISH THEATRE
Nation of Myth-Makers	Patrick RAFROIDI	151
Irish Myths in the Theatre of W.B. Yeats	Pascale MATHELIN-GASTEBOIS	163
The Hero's Light	Raymonde POPOT	173

The Theme of Diarmuid and Grainne	Mireille SCHODET	213
Samuel Beckett : Irish Tradition and Irish Creation	Bernard HIBON	225
NEW DIRECTIONS
Racial Conflicts and Related Themes in Murderous Angels by Conor Cruise O'Brien	Nigel DEACON	245
Where Have All the Shamrocks Gone ?	Robert HOGAN	261
APPENDIX
From One Theatrical Reformer to Another : W.B. Yeats's Unpublished Letters to Gordon Craig	Christiane THILLIEZ	275
Notes on Contributors		287
Index		289