1. Introduction	7
1.1. Manufacturing, services and their interrelatedness	7
1.2. General framework for exploring manufacturing–services interactions	10
1.3. Overview of study	16
2. Performance and interdependence of industries and services	17
2.1. Manufacturing and services performance	17
2.2. Indicators capturing the inter-linkages between manufacturing and services industries	28
2.3. Summary	43
3. Assessing the role of business services linkages for manufacturing performance in EU Member States	44
3.1. Introduction	44
3.2. Data and methodology	44
3.3. Differentiated impact of business services linkages on manufacturing performance	46
3.4. Summary	49
4. Services in the manufacturing value chain	50
4.1. The value chain perspective	50
4.2. Manufacturing value chains in EU Member States	54
4.3. Summary	57
5. Exploring patterns of manufacturing–services interaction and international linkages for specific country–industry cases	58
5.1. Introduction	58
5.2. Methodology	58
5.3. General developments in the selected industries	60
5.4. Qualitative results concerning manufacturing–services interactions	67
5.5. Conclusion	86

6.	Cross-border services provision and the international dimension of manufacturing services linkages for specific country–industry cases	91
6.1.	Tradability of services and fragmentation of services supply	91
6.2.	Use of imported performance-enhancing services	94
6.3.	Barriers and framework conditions in services trade.....	96
6.4.	Linking barriers to services trade to the use of imported services by EU manufacturers.....	103
6.5.	Summary	109
7.	Summary of main findings.....	111
7.1.	Performance of manufacturing and services and their inter-linkages	112
7.2.	Manufacturing–services interaction and manufacturing performance	115
7.3.	Services in the manufacturing value chain	115
7.4.	A detailed look at manufacturing–services inter-linkages and business services trade	116
