

| TABLE OF CONTENTS |

Lectori salutem 9

ESSAYS

Chronicles, annals, and other forms of memoria
(Patrick Geary) 13

The “methodology” of medieval chroniclers
(Hans-Werner Goetz) 25

Reading a medieval narrative: an accessus
(Courtney M. Booker) 35

Byzantine history-writers and their representation of history (Stephanos Efthymiadis) 69

History writing in the Christian East
(István Perczel & Irma Karaulashvili) 81

Europe seen from the Muslim world
(Niall Christie) 97

Hagiography and historical narrative
(Gábor Klaniczay) 111

National chronicles and national consciousness
(Norbert Kersken) 119

Medieval narrative texts digitalized
(Balázs Nagy) 127

CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES

Introduction 141

About the tables 144

Abbreviations 147

Some major bibliographies, reference works and surveys of medieval narrative sources 157

LATE ANTIQUITY & EARLY MIDDLE AGES (TO C. 900)

Late antique and imperial (Byzantine) 168

The Papacy 190

The Christian East 192

 Armenia 192

 Georgia 196

 The Near East (Syriac, Coptic, Arab Christian) 200

Ireland 204

Gentile and regional 206

 Vandals (N. Africa) 206

 Ostrogoths (and Italy s. VI) 206

 Lombards (and Italy s. VII sq.) 208

 Visigoths (and Iberian peninsula) 210

Britain 214

Gaul, the Franks, and the Carolingian Empire 218

The Middle East 236

CENTRAL MIDDLE AGES (c. 900 – c. 1300)

Byzantium 242

The Christian East 250

 Armenia 250

 Georgia 254

 The Near East (Syriac, Coptic, Arab Christian) 256

The Papacy and the new orders 258

The German-Roman Empire (East Frankish Kingdom
[Germany], Bohemia, Low Countries, Northern Italy) 262

Italy (urban and local) 282

Venice 288

Sicily/Naples 290

France (incl. Flanders) 294

Iberian peninsula 306

England, Scotland, Wales, and Normandy 314

Ireland 334

Scandinavia 338

Prussia and the Baltic 344

Poland 346

Rus' and Muscovy 348

Hungary-Croatia 352

Balkans (Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro) 356

Crusades and Outremer 358

The Middle East 368

Mongols and beyond 370

LATE MIDDLE AGES (c. 1300 – c. 1500)

Byzantium 378
The Papacy and the councils 384
Holy Roman Empire (incl. Northern Italy, Bohemia, Low Countries, Austria) 388
Italy (regional and urban) 396
Venice 408
Sicily/Naples 412
France (incl. Normandy, Flanders) 412
Iberian peninsula 420
England, Scotland, Wales 430
Ireland 442
Scandinavia 442
Prussia and the Baltic 444
Balkans (Albania, Bulgaria, Serbia) 452
Rus' and Muscovy 454
The Muslim world 456
Asia Minor (Ottoman Empire) 456
Eurasia 460

INDEXES

Index of authors and of the titles of anonymous works 465
Index of persons as subjects 480
Geographical index 489