

CONTENTS

PREFACE	page 9
1. Proof and the Theorem Proved	13
2. Self-contradictory Suppositions	26
3. Wittgenstein on Some Questions in Foundations of Mathematics	40
4. Finitism and 'The Limits of Empiricism'	59
5. Invention and Discovery	66
6. On Entailment and Logical Necessity	88
7. Wittgenstein on Universals	104
8. Unknowables and Logical Atomism	122
9. Linguistic Approaches to Philosophical Problems	142
10. The Problem of Linguistic Inadequacy	157
11. The Problem of Justifying Inductive Inference	182
12. Three Aspects of Moore's Philosophy	205
13. Moore's 'Proof of An External World'	214
14. Factual, Mathematical and Metaphysical Inventories	233
INDEX	258