

Contents

Preface	IX
Acknowledgements	XI
List of Figures and Tables	XIII
Archival Abbreviations	XIV
1 Introduction	1
Prague as a Theoretical Starting Point	3
History and Theory of Nationalism	8
Nation-cleansing	14
Christian-Jewish Relations	17
About This Book	20
2 The Great Fin-de-Siècle Crisis, 1897–1900	22
Language Ordinances and the Political Parties	23
Party Politics	26
Press Incitement	30
Economic Boycotts and “Sanitation”	35
Riots and Blood Libels	38
The Hilsner Trial	40
Leopold Hilsner	42
Karel Baxa	43
3 Fallout: The Impact of the Crisis, 1900–1914	46
From German-Liberalism to Zionism in Prague	47
Berta Fanta	54
Czech-Jews Revisited	55
Jewish Allies Reconsidered	58
Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk	60
4 World War I and the Founding of Czechoslovakia, 1914–1920	64
Christians and Jews in the Great War	65
Ostjuden	68
The Czechoslovak Exile	70
The Prague Revolution	74
Czechoslovakia’s Borders	76
“Pogromstimmung”	82

- 5 The First Republic and the Minorities, 1920–1938 89
- From French to Nazi German Czechoslovakia 93
 - Slovakia and Subcarpathian Ruthenia as Czech Colonies? 100
 - Jews and Other Minorities 103
 - The End of German-Liberalism 106
 - Czechoslovakia's Hungarian-speaking Minority 109
 - International Minority Politics 111
 - German and Austrian Refugees in Czechoslovakia 114
- 6 Jewish Religion in Czechoslovakia, 1920–1938 119
- Jewish Religion in the Bohemian Lands 120
 - Jiří Langer 124
 - Alfred Fuchs 127
 - Christians and Jews in Slovakia 130
 - Christians and Jews in Subcarpathian Ruthenia 135
 - Hayim Eleazar Shapira 141
- 7 Jewish Politics in Czechoslovakia, 1920–1938 147
- Red Jews—Green Jews 149
 - Two Missions to the East 157
 - Zionist Internal Colonialism 159
 - Slovak-Jews 161
 - Jewish Education in Subcarpathian Ruthenia 164
 - Hayim Kugel 169
- 8 The Munich Agreement and the Second Republic, 1938–1939 172
- Road to Munich 173
 - In the No Man's Land 178
 - "Czecho-Slovakia" 181
 - Czech Fascism? 184
 - The First Transfer Agreement 189
 - Marie Schmolková 192
- 9 Nazi Germany's "Protectorate," 1939–1945 195
- Fascist Slovakia and Subcarpathian Ruthenia 197
 - The "Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia" 199
 - The Nazi Genocide in the "Protectorate" 201
 - Resistance and Collaboration 204
 - Milena Jesenská 208

10	World War II and the Czechoslovak Exile, 1938–1945	212
	Familiar Exiles	213
	Return to the Native?	216
	The Czechoslovak Army-in-Exile in Poland	218
	Svoboda's Army	220
	Liberation?	224
11	The Reconstitution of Czechoslovakia, the Third Republic, and the Rise of Communism, 1945–1948	228
	A Historical Opportunity?	230
	Czechoslovakia's Great Nation-Cleansing	233
	The Pitter-Fierz Reports	238
	The Romany Survivor Community	240
	Making of a Communist State	242
	A New Dictatorship	245
12	Czechoslovakia's Jewish Survivor Community, 1945–1948	249
	A Demography of Survivors	251
	Jewish Population Movements	253
	Restitution and Riots	257
	Organizations, Press, and Education	262
	Crackdown	264
	The Second Transfer Agreement	266
	"Crossbreeds"	268
	Closed Gates	270
13	Conclusions	274
	Appendix A: Terminology	279
	Appendix B: Population Statistics of Czechoslovakia	289
	Appendix C: Jewish Religious Movements in Czechoslovakia	291
	Bibliography	292
	Index	320