

CONTENTS

ILLUSTRATIONS xi

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xiii

TEXTS AND ABBREVIATIONS xv

INTRODUCTION 3

PART ONE: THEORY

CHAPTER ONE

Blake's Concept of the Sublime 15

Sublime Wonder: The Moment of Astonishment 15

"The Most Sublime Poetry": Corporeal Limits and Mental Infinities 21

The Sublime of Reading: Barriers and Disclosures 29

Singular and Particular Detail: The Sublime of the Signifier 36

The Poet's Work: His Sublime and His Pathos 43

PART TWO: STYLE: SUBLIME EFFECTS

CHAPTER TWO

The Bardic Style: Sublime Extension 55

Continuity and Discontinuity 55

The Bardic Voice: Uttering the "Artificial Infinite" 62

Syntax: Catalog and Parataxis 67

Tropes: Metamorphosis and Rhetorical Substitution 72

CHAPTER THREE

The Iconic Style: Sublime Concentration 80

Negotiating the Vortex: A Whirl of Words 80

Hieroglyphic Form: The Sublime of the Bible 84

The Visible Text: A Wall of Words 89

Divine Names: Iconic Microcosms 94

Iconic Troping: Identification and Catachresis 98

CHAPTER FOUR

Narrative Sequences: Modes of Organization 103

Sudden Centers: Openings and Liminal Effects 103

Interpolation, or the Text as Palimpsest: The Example of Vala 113

Medley, or the Text as Compilation: The Example of Jerusalem 124

X CONTENTS

PART THREE: WORLDVIEW: IMAGERY OF SUBLIME
SETTINGS

CHAPTER FIVE

- The Setting of Nature and the Ruins of Time 145
The Sublime Scene and the Search for Origins 146
Natural Catastrophe and the Birth of Corporeal Magnitudes 151
Architectural Ruins: Traces of the Ancient Man 164

CHAPTER SIX

- The Setting of the Divided Nations: The Antiquarian Sublime 179
Syncretic Mythography: History as Sublime Trauma 180
Blake's Adaptations of the Syncretic Enterprise 188
The Sublime of the North: Repudiation and Restoration 192

CHAPTER SEVEN

- The Settings of Signs: Language and the Recovery of Origins 201
The Primal Language and the Catastrophe of Babel 201
The Hermetic and Kabbalistic Background 205
Blake's Human Text 215

EPILOGUE

- Blake's Sublime in the Romantic Context 225

INDEX 233