

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Pilgrim's Crossing by Patricia Beer	viii
Introduction	xi
List of Contributors	xv
Outline of Bunyan's Life	xvii
Abbreviations	xxiii

PART ONE

1 Bunyan's Contemporary Reputation	3
Christopher Hill
2 Bunyan and the Parliamentary Army	17
Anne Laurence
3 The Pulpit Guarded: Confrontations between Orthodox and Radicals in Revolutionary England	31
Ann Hughes
4 John Bunyan and the Context of Persecution	51
Barrie White
5 Amid the Holy War: Bunyan and the Ethic Suffering	63
Richard L. Greaves
6 'Antichrist must be Pulled Down': Bunyan and the Millennium	77
W.R. Owens

PART TWO

7 Spiritual Autobiography: Bunyan's Grace Abounding	97
Roger Sharrock
8 Grace Abounding and the New Sense of Self	105
Roger Pooley
9 Authority, Resistance and Loss: Gendered Difference in the Writings of John Bunyan and Hannah Allen	115
Elsbeth Graham

10	'Here is her Glory, even to be under Him': The Feminine in the Thought and Work of John Bunyan N.H. Keeble	131
11	'Safe for Those for Whom it is to be Safe': Salvation and Damnation in Bunyan's Fiction Stuart Sim	149
12	Bunyan and the Language of the Body in Seventeenth-Century England Nigel Smith	161
	Index	175