
CONTENTS

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	ix
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	x
Introduction	I
1. After the Revolution	II
2. The Education of a Dissenter	32
3. Meditating on Matters Spiritual and Secular	51
4. Marriage and Rebellion	73
5. Financial Woes and Recovery	101
6. Propagandist for William III	120
7. The True-Born Englishman and Other Satires	142
8. An Age of Plot and Deceit, of Contradiction and Paradox	168
9. From Pilloried Libeller to Government Propagandist	189
10. 'Writing History Sheet by Sheet': Defoe, The Review , and The Storm	213
11. From Public Journalist to Lunar Philosopher	237
12. Defoe as Spy and Whig Propagandist	262
13. A 'True Spy' in Scotland	289
14. In Limbo Between Causes and Masters	313
15. Journalism and History in 'An Age of Mysteries and Paradoxes'	338
16. How to Sell Out While Keeping One's Integrity (Somewhat) Intact in That 'Lunatick Age'	360

17. These Dangerous Times: Or Wild Doings in This World	386
18. 'A Miserable Divided Nation'	411
19. A Change of Monarchs and the Whig's Revenge	436
20. Times When Honest Men Must Reserve Themselves for Better Fortunes	464
21. Corrector General of the Press: A Digression on Defoe as a Journalist	490
22. The Year before Robinson Crusoe : Intellectual Controversies and Experiments in Fiction	513
23. Robinson Crusoe and the Variability of Life	535
24. After Crusoe : Pirate Adventures, Military Memoirs and the South Sea Scandal	565
25. Creating Fictional Worlds	593
26. Describing Britain in the 1720s	624
27. Enter Henry Baker	648
28. Last Productive Years	674
29. Sinking Under the Weight of Affliction	695
WORKS CITED	707
INDEX	741